PARISH NEWS

SPIRITUAL WORKS OF MERCY

“Instruct the Ignorant”

Biblically speaking, this action comes directly from Jesus when He instructs His apostles, “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” (Matthew 28:19-20)

This applies to us today as much as it did in the first century. While much of the world has heard about Jesus Christ, most are ignorant of what Jesus actually taught. This is due to many factors, including the numerous false interpretations of the Gospels. What doesn't help is the fact that we are sheep. We follow blindly whatever the culture tells us, or even what our parish priest preaches about on Sunday. This means that many in our world do not have the fullness of the Faith.

However, this does not give everyone a mandate to instruct those they know in the intricacies of Church teaching. We must be careful, as we could be instructing our fellow neighbor in falsehood, when we think we are giving them truth. Above all things we must remember that Jesus gave His “apostles” the direct mandate to “teach.” Bishops are the primary catechists in their geographical region and priests are cooperators with him.

KIDS' KORNER...

Jesus tells us that He is a Good Shepherd. When we believe in Him and follow in His ways He will look after us always. In this Year of Mercy pray with our children for the grace to live in a way that demonstrates our devotion to Jesus.

Pray that these children may be constantly renewed by the life of the Spirit that dwells within them.

Rest In Peace Mother Angelica

Mother Angelica was a Poor Clare nun who devoted her life of service to spreading the Gospel any way she could. She began in the 1950's distributing mini booklets of writings worldwide. The Poor Clare nun, who knew little of the world of technology and communication, then built her own TV studio on monastery property in Irondale, which today is home to Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN). Without making plans for the future, Mother Angelica, relying completely on Divine Providence, believes in going "where God opens the door." It is that deep and constant faith in the Lord, which has called Mother Angelica to act on God's invitation to do the impossible, through Him, who accomplishes the miraculous."

"You see, God expects His people to do the ridiculous so He can do the miraculous." - Mother Angelica

Funeral Planning and Bereavement Presentation

Tuesday, May 3rd, 2016 at 7:00 PM - 8:00 in the Church

Although we believe in everlasting life, it is never easy when a loved one leaves this earthly life to enter eternal life. A little planning can ease some of that burden. The Parish Pastoral Advisory Council will be offering a presentation addressing the emotional and practical considerations regarding the death of someone we love. At this presentation, Gerry Loughheed Jr. of the Loughheed Funeral Homes will discuss the emotional journey of bereavement as well as the practical requirements and options available when planning funerals, vigils, cremations and burials. The presentation will be one hour with a question and answer period. All are invited to attend.
