FRANCIS BAPTISES 28 CHILDREN IN THE SISTINE CHAPEL For the fourth time in his papacy, this morning in the Sistine Chapel Pope Francis administered the Sacrament of Baptism to 28 newborns, fifteen boys and thirteen girls, on the Feast of the Baptism of Jesus. After an impromptu homily he states "In the ceremony of Baptism you will be given a lighted candle, as in the first times of the Church. And therefore Baptism, in those times, was called 'illumination', because faith illuminates the heart, and enables us to see things in another light. You have asked for faith: the Church gives the faith to your children with Baptism, and you have the task of making it grow, protecting it, so that it becomes a witness for all others. This is the meaning of this ceremony. This is all I wanted to say to you: protect the faith, make it grow, so that it may be a testimony to others". At that moment, some of the babies began to cry, and the Pope commented "The concert has started! It is because the babies find themselves in a place they do not know, or they rose earlier than usual. One starts, strikes the chord and then the others imitate. Some cry simply because another one is crying. ... Jesus did the same, you know? I like to think that the first sermon Jesus gave in the stable was a cry, the first. ... And then, since the ceremony is a bit long, some cry out of hunger. "Do not forget: you have asked for faith", he reiterated, "and it is your task to protect the faith, to make it grow, so that it may be a testimony for all of us, for all of us: even for us priests, bishops, all of us."

Kids Korner This week, pray with our children that as John the Baptist was a witness for Jesus as the Son of God, may they also be witnesses for God's love so that others may learn to share in His love for us.
