SPECIAL EASTER BASKET BLESSING

Following a century's old Eastern European tradition, Easter baskets will be blessed on Saturday, March 31st, 2018 at 11:00 am. In this tradition, baskets filled with foods to be eaten on Easter Sunday morning are prepared and brought to the parish for a special blessing. We look forward to seeing you at this very special tradition.

GLUTEN FREE HOSTS

- Attention to all those persons with allergies to gluten and who have not been receiving Eucharist due to this condition. We now have available "Gluten Free" hosts rated at 20ppm. If you would like to receive Holy Communion in this form, please make this known before Mass by speaking to the Eucharistic Minister. Then during the Mass a "Gluten Free" host will be consecrated in a special Pyx and as you approach the altar during communion you will be given Communion from that Pyx.

KIDS KORNER When Jesus entered Jerusalem he was greeted like a King. He came with his message of peace and love. Instead, He suffered and died on the cross for our salvation. During Holy Week pray with our children for the grace to find ways to bring peace and love into daily life as a way to thank Him for this sacrifice.

Widening our Welcome: Race and Racism in our Congregations and Communities

Saturday, April 14th, 10:00 to 3:00 p.m. St Peter's United Church, Sudbury.

Guest speakers/facilitators: Adele Halliday, Team Leader for Discipleship and Witness, United Church of Canada and Beth Baskin, Program Coordinator, Social Analysis and Congregational Engagement, United Church of Canada. Do you have questions about race and racism? Would you like to explore those questions in a safe community? Many congregations think they are welcoming to all people. But the experience of some minority groups is not one of welcome; it is one of exclusion. How do we widen out welcome for people of all racial identities? How do we begin to live out racial justice in our communities? How do we respond to racist comments? Come and explore some of these challenging questions about racial justice; reflect on power and privilege, and gather some practical tips and tools. This will be an interactive and engaging workshop with practical conversations. Registration $20 for individuals, $50 for groups of three includes refreshments and a light lunch. Please contact Gillian Schell at gillian.schell@sympatico.ca for more information or to register.

NATIONAL CATHOLIC MISSION

Since 2000 the National Catholic Broadcasting Council (NCBC), the producers of the Daily TV Mass, have collaborated with a number of groups to bring our audiences a yearly National Catholic Mission which is broadcast across Canada and on the Internet during Holy Week.

Part 1: Invitation to the Lord's Supper We begin the 2018 National Catholic Mission in the Upper Room. Here we explore how Jesus gathered his disciples around him to share his Body and Blood, the new and everlasting covenant for that first time.

Monday, March 26 at 8pm ET

Friday, March 30 at 8am ET

Friday, March 30 at 12pm ET

Part 2: Jesus' Pascal Sacrifice Pope Francis reminds us that every time we gather as a community for the Eucharistic Celebration we participate in the mystery of the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ. In Part 2 of the National Catholic Mission we will explore how the Mass developed over the centuries into the mystery at the centre of salvation.

Tuesday, March 26 at 8pm ET

Saturday, March 30 at 8am ET

Saturday, March 30 at 12pm ET

Our enemies frighten us. We are incapable of hearing their cries, of responding to their needs. Their aggression or domination stifles us. We flee from them or wish they would disappear. But in community we are called to discover that the 'enemy' is a person in pain and that through the enemy we are asked to become aware of our own weakness, lack of maturity and inner poverty.
