This Sunday we celebrate Pentecost, the last Sunday in the Season of Easter, before we begin Ordinary Time. On this day we recall when Jesus sent His Holy Spirit to his disciples. The Holy Spirit continues to live in each of us and helps us to do God’s work in the world. This week talk to your child about the many ways that the Holy Spirit works in us. Please pray with your child:

Come Holy Spirit,
and fill our hearts with your love.
Work through us to bring Jesus to those who do not know him so that we may share this love with others. Amen

What is Ordinary Time? After Easter, this may seem like a let down, but it’s not. According to Dominick Albano, Ordinary Time isn’t ordinary at all and is equally special to Advent and Easter. This season celebrates a very specific time in the life of our Lord, Jesus Christ. During the next weeks, we participate in the rest of Jesus earthly ministry and some of the major events of the Gospels that we know and love ... “the miracles, the parables, the calling of the twelve, the sermon on the mount, the bread of life discourse” ... We get all that and more during this coming season! Truly, there is much to celebrate. Ordinary, in this context, comes from the Latin term ordinalis, meaning “numbered or ruled”. This title simply refers to the rhythmical nature of the season. The liturgical colour is Green, representing a time of growth and expansion of the church following the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Green is a very natural color and is often a symbol for growth and new life. Like all liturgical seasons, Ordinary Time is meant to be lived! We aren’t passive receptors of the liturgy – or at least we shouldn’t be. We are called to be active participants! Participating in Ordinary Time means participating in the everyday life of Jesus. REST IN PEACE... Please remember in your prayers, the following person who has died:

Gilles Huneault

Eternal rest, grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Marymount Academy's June graduation in our church has been postponed until sometime in the fall due to the pandemic. At this time, we congratulate all of our 2020 graduates and ask God's abundant blessing in their lives. Although the Covid-19 restrictions have curtailed gatherings, we hope you have found or will find ways to celebrate this great milestone in your lives and may God continue to bless you in all of your future endeavours!

Thank you for your continued financial support of our parish during these difficult days. We are grateful to the parishioners who continue to impart their financial support. We continue to receive Pre-Authorized Debit Program (PADP) and weekly envelopes (in the mailbox slot of the white porch Rectory door. All of your donations are helping us meet our regular parish expenses such as heating, electricity, taxes, salaries, etc.

Thank you for your generosity in keeping our parish ministry of Christ the King alive!

Prayer to Mary, Most Holy, during the pandemic... Pope Francis calls on us to pray the rosary at home during the month of May. He has also presented two new prayers that implore the help of the Virgin Mary during the coronavirus pandemic (taken from Catholic.org/news website). Last week, our bulletin featured the First Prayer. Here is the second prayer the Pope presents for the Virgin Mary's help:

"We fly to your protection, O Holy Mother of God".

In the present tragic situation, when the whole world is prey to suffering and anxiety, we fly to you, Mother of God and our Mother, and seek refuge under your protection.

Virgin Mary, turn your merciful eyes towards us amid this coronavirus pandemic.

Comfort those who are distraught and mourn their loved ones who have died, and at times are buried in a way that grieves them deeply. Be close to those who are concerned for their loved ones who are sick and who, in order to prevent the spread of the disease, cannot be close to them. Fill with hope those who are troubled by the uncertainty of the future and the consequences for the economy and employment.

Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us to God, the Father of mercies, that this great suffering may end and that hope and peace may dawn anew. Plead with your divine Son, as you did at Cana, so that the families of the sick and the victims be comforted, and their hearts be opened to confidence and trust.

Protect those doctors, nurses, health workers and volunteers who are on the frontline of this emergency, and are risking their lives to save others. Support their heroic effort and grant them strength, generosity and continued health. Be close to those who assist the sick night and day, and to priests who, in their pastoral concern and fidelity to the Gospel, are trying to help and support everyone.

Blessed Virgin, illumine the minds of men and women engaged in scientific research, that they may find effective solutions to overcome this virus.

Support national leaders, that with wisdom, solicitude and generosity they may come to the aid of those lacking the basic necessities of life and may devise social and economic solutions inspired by farsightedness and solidarity.

Mary Most Holy, stir our consciences, so that the enormous funds invested in developing and stockpiling arms will instead be spent on promoting effective research on how to prevent similar tragedies from occurring in the future.

Beloved Mother, help us realize that we are all members of one great family and to recognize the bond that unites us, so that, in a spirit of fraternity and solidarity, we can help to alleviate countless situations of poverty and need. Make us strong in faith, persevering in service, constant in prayer.

Mary, Consolation of the afflicted, embrace all your children in distress and pray that God will stretch out his all-powerful hand and free us from this terrible pandemic, so that life can serenely resume its normal course.

To you, who shine on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope, do we entrust ourselves, O Clement, O Loving, O Sweet Virgin Mary. Amen.
