EASTER

Imagine what the women and apostles felt like that first Easter morning when they went to the tomb expecting to find a dead body, only to be greeted by an angel who announced that he was, in fact, alive. Life, where they expected death. This is what Easter is all about. On this Easter weekend we wish all our friends and families that same Easter experience. For those who have lost loved ones in death, the Easter message is for you. Why look amongst the dead for someone who is alive? For all of us who have celebrated the Lenten journey, it is a reminder to us of the peace and joy that comes from forgiveness and new beginnings. May this Easter be for all of us then, a season of new hope.
