PRAYER IN TIMES OF NEED

For those in any need:
Almighty God, keep them in your love
and make us generous in responding to those in need.

Lord God,
we turn to you in all our troubles
and praise you in all our joys.

Hear our prayer this day and see our need.
Give us the strength and courage
that flows from your Spirit to follow your son, Jesus, in the way of the cross.
Send us your support
and let us experience it
in the generosity and support of others.
Glory and praise to you, God of mercy,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR MAY

The World of Finance

Let us pray that those in charge of finance will work with governments to regulate the financial sphere and protect citizens from its dangers.

NOTICES

CALLED BACK BY THE SHEPHERD

One bad thing about sheep is that they have a tendency to stray. They put their heads down and start grazing without watching where they are going. They have such poor sense of direction that they will graze right up to and over a cliff. So if a sheep strays, it's generally in danger. The shepherd has to go out and find it and restore it to the flock.

Aren't we often like that? We simply wander off from our Shepherd. But even though we may stray again and again, when we say, "Lord, forgive me," He brings us safely home. (Ezek. 34:16).

The Bible says, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way." (Isa. 53.6). But the Word of God also emphasizes that we can be 'returned unto the Shepherd' (1 Peter 2:25) - the eternal, loving God who calls us back to fellowship with Him.

SHEEP DON'T WALLOW

There was a lamb and its mother. The lamb passed a pigpen each morning on the way to the pasture with its mother. Watching the pigs wallow in the mud seemed like such fun, and on an especially hot day the lamb asked his mother if he could jump the fence and wallow in the cool mud. She replied, "No. Then the lamb asked, "Why?" The mother just replied, "Sheep don't wallow!"

This didn't satisfy the lamb. He felt she was just over-restrictive. So as soon as the mother was out of sight, the lamb jumped the fence and ran to the pigpen. He was soon feeling the cool mud on his feet, his legs, and soon his stomach. After a few moments, he decided he had better go back to his mother, but he couldn't. He was stuck.

Mud and wool don't mix. His pleasure had become his prison. He cried out and was rescued by the kindly farmer. When cleaned and returned to the field, the mother said, "Remember: sheep don't wallow."

Sin is like that. It looks so nice, we may think we can escape when we wish, but it is not so. Pleasures often become prisons.
