GOSPEL NOTES

Isaiah tells us that the Kingdom of God is meant for all peoples and St. Paul reminds us that God wills the salvation of both Jew and Gentile and that he himself has been called to bring that salvation to unbelievers. So we are a bit shocked at the harsh response of Jesus to the Canaanite woman's request, but her faith is so great that she still trusts in Jesus' good will and she reaps the fruit of her faith.

Lord, teach us to have faith in your love and goodness even when everything seems to go wrong, when he doesn't seem to hear us. Help us to persevere when we seem to get nowhere.
