DYNAMIC CATHOLIC - "Who do you say that I am?" The dynamic Catholic lives in a world which does not know Christ, which misunderstands his message, or is simply unaware of him. The dynamic Catholic has the duty to witness in truth just like Peter: "Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God." He witnesses by his word, his actions, and his attitude without ever imposing himself or condemning the other.

NET MINISTRIES - CAMERON PRIMEAU, a 19 year old member of Blessed Sacrament Parish, Cornwall, has been accepted to serve as a missionary with NET (National Evangelization Teams) Ministries of Canada. NET Ministries is a Catholic Youth Movement of young adult missionaries bringing youth to Christ across Canada, proclaiming the Gospel through personal witness of faith. As a missionary with NET Ministries, Cameron needs your financial and prayer support to help bring the gospel message to the youth of Canada. If you would like to support, please use this link: <https://www.gifttool.com/athon/ParticipantAreaHome?ID=1185&AD=1515> or pledge cards are available at the back of the church.

Tickets are $10. Vote for your choice - Bishop Marcel would like you to help him choose the movies for October, November and December. Go to www.alexandria-cornwall.ca to vote.

MASS INTENTIONS

Part 2 - Why do Catholics offer Masses for the dead?

Catholics believe in the communion of saints, whereby the Church is made up not only of members here on earth and those in Heaven, but also of those who are undergoing a process of purification (Purgatory). Prayers offered for the dead is our effort to help our loved ones in their process of purification. The most important prayer of all, of course, is the celebration of the Eucharist. Therefore, it is only natural that Catholics would celebrate the Eucharist and ask the community to pray for departed members. In every celebration of the Eucharist, we are asked to pray not only for the living community but also for those who have died.
