CELEBRATING MOTHER MARY AND ALL MOTHERS!

Join us on Monday, 22nd August as we celebrate the Memorial of the Queenship of Mary. At this bilingual Mass, we will also celebrate the queens in our lives, our mothers. Our very own Msgr. Kevin Maloney, V.G. will preside the Mass. At 6:00 p.m. we will pray the Stations of the Cross. The outdoor Mass will begin at 7:00 p.m. In the case of rain, Mass will be moved into the church. Calvary is located behind Ste-Marie-de-l'Assomption Parish in Green Valley (4172 Hwy 34).

We are trying to organize a bus out to Calvary. The bus would depart the parish at 5:30 p.m. and return from Calvary at approximately 8:00 p.m. The cost is just $5 per person. You can sign up after Mass or contact Helen at the parish office weekdays from 9:00 a.m. to noon. If you have never experienced Calvary, it is well worth the visit!

HELP WANTED

We are looking for volunteers to assist at weekend Masses. Duties: We need two additional volunteers to work together at each weekend Mass to operate the elevator when needed and assist those with walkers and/or wheelchairs and to distribute our Parish Bulletins at the end of Mass.

If you think you might be able to help on a regular basis, please contact Deacon Ken at: 613-936-1919.

REQUIESCAT IN PACE

For the repose of the souls of JOHN MESICH, husband of Gladys Mesich; and for MARIE-CLAUDE BEAUVAIS. May the Lord Jesus welcome them into His kingdom of light and peace.

WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO BE FAITHLESS?

In the Gospel Reading, Jesus tells two parables, one about servants and one about stewards. In the parable about the servants, he mentions a reward for the good ones. In the parable about the stewards, he adds a punishment for the bad ones. The bad steward will be assigned a place with the unfaithful.

The unfaithful are those who don't have what faith alone will get you: union with the Lord. So when the Lord says to some people, "Go away!"— the bad steward will be in that group.

This is truly a dreadful punishment.

So what is a steward, and what does it take to be a bad one?

Well, a steward is a person who has servants under him. In the parable, these are the Lord's servants. Since every human being is the Lord's servant in one way or another, then every person who has any human beings in his power is a steward of the Lord's, in virtue of having some kind of charge of the Lord's servants. If you are the president of a company or if you are a mother of small children, you are one of the Lord's stewards, because there are human beings who are in your power.

It doesn't take much to meet this condition for being a steward. If you sit at the dinner table with other people who can't easily get away from you, you are the Lord's steward as far as those people are concerned. To some small extent, they are in your power until you leave the table and them.

Two things mark out the bad steward. First, he considers his own needs and desires solely, not the needs and desires of those who are in his power. Second, when he deals with those in his power, he treats them unjustly. A mother who watches TV instead of caring for her children or who lets the older child tyrannize the younger one is a bad steward. A president of a company who assigns raises not to reward merit but to get revenge on his political enemies in the company is a bad steward too.

So having other people in your power is a fearsome responsibility. Do it badly, and you get a place among the faithless, outside, looking in at the dinner the Lord has made for the faithful, who served him well.
