PASTOR'S NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE

The beginning of a new year gives us an opportunity first of all to look back at the blessings and challenges that the last year gave us. It is my hope and my prayer that the blessings were much greater than the difficulties that you may have encountered. The new year also gives us an opportunity of looking forward to what our hopes and expectations are.

For the Diocese of Alexandria-Cornwall, we are beginning a new stage of our journey. Early in the new year we will be welcoming a new Auxiliary Bishop (Guy Desrochers) who will be with us to help shepherd us during our time of transition as we become one with the Archdiocese of Ottawa. We realize that change does not come easy for many of us, because change brings with it uncertainty, but it is my hope and my prayer that the new year may relieve any anxieties we have and help us to move forward as a people of hope as we chart a new history of our Diocese. William Shakespeare once said, "What is in a name? A rose by any other name will smell as sweet." What is important for the history of our Diocese is not a name but a spirit. That spirit will unite us together so that we may continue to be a powerful witness to the power of Christ, who continues to live amongst his people and continues to reveal himself in Word and Sacrament.

It is my hope and my prayer that together we may be able to embrace our new future with faith and optimism. May God be with all of us and our families as we begin this new year.

FR. KEVIN

PRAYER

My Church is composed of people like me.
I help make it what it is.
It will be friendly, if I am.
Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
It will do great work, if I work.
It will make generous gifts to many causes,
if I am a generous giver.
It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship, if I invite and bring them.
It will be a Church of loyalty and love,
of fearlessness and faith, and a church with a noble spirit, if I, who make it what it is,
am filled with these same things.
Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my church to be. Amen.
