CELIAC

Celiac is a disease that affects many in our parish. Celiac is an allergy to wheat (or gluten), which is a major problem for Catholics who wish to receive Communion, since the Host is made of wheat. In order to help those individuals, we prepare small cups of the Precious Blood, which are distributed at the beginning of the distribution of Communion. If you are allergic to gluten, please notify Father Kevin so that we can arrange for you to receive the Precious Blood here at St. Francis.
