MESSAGE FROM GRAND KNIGHT

Sometimes we have new folks join us for Mass. We would love to see them come back again, becoming a part of our parish. You can warmly welcome new parishioners to Mass with these steps:

1. Arrive early (at least not late) and be present.
2. Approach newcomers with a genuine smile.
3. Introduce yourself and ask for their name.
4. Listen attentively to their background experiences.
5. Offer assistance and guidance if needed.
6. Include them in church activities and introduce them to others.
7. Follow up after Mass, expressing joy in seeing them and providing additional information.

By demonstrating kindness and a desire to make newcomers feel welcome, you contribute to our parish and our community. How did you come into the parish? Did someone welcome you? How can you be there for someone else?

Not everyone wants to have a big conversation at church, so be ready for that. The best place to start is a smile, a kind hello and an introduction. Then see how it goes from there.

Happy welcoming!

*David
Grand Knight*
