NEW HOME

As many of you are aware, the hut at the east side of the parish church was used for different meetings for a number of years. Unfortunately, because of the restrictions of COVID, we were not able to allow groups to use the facility. The groups that were using it have found a new home. The Finance Council of our parish thought this would be an opportune time to make some extensive renovations to the building and to refurbish it so that it could be used by the St. Vincent de Paul Society. The renovations of the hut were done during the month of June and have now been mostly completed. The renovations were quite extensive because little maintenance was done on the hut for the last number of years. New flooring had to be installed and the electrical system had to be renewed to meet the present code. Some work had to be done in the washrooms and some work on the exterior roof had to be completed. These renovations at this time were quite costly but the Finance Council would like you to know that they were done at the expense of the parish and this was possible because of your generosity. The St. Vincent de Paul Society have moved into the hut and now are open to serve the needs of our community. Thank you for your generous support and encouragement.

WELCOMING GOD

In the Gospel, Jesus enters the house of his friends Mary and Martha. He too is warmly welcomed. As he sits, Mary arranges herself at his feet and focuses her clear wide eyes upon him, while Martha bustles about preparing dinner.

Unfair! Martha gets tired and exasperated, and finally asks Jesus to make Mary stop lounging and help out a little.

Surprisingly, Jesus says, no.

"Mary has chosen the better part," he explains.

Isn't this response unjust to Martha? After all, someone has to make the meal or there would be none. Or maybe Martha could have said, "we are not having any food tonight, we are just going to sit and stare at you."

In truth, Martha's trouble was not that she was scrabbling about, but that as she did so she forgot about Jesus. She was not making him welcome, she was constructing a meal. He even tells her that she was anxious and worried about many things, not the one thing necessary.

What is the one thing necessary? Relation to Christ.

Real hospitality means a two-way relationship in which host and guest open to each other, become present to one another in various ways. Hosts do work out the details of preparation, and they work hard. But they always remember the visitor while they prepare. Excellent hosts manage somehow to get everything ready but also to truly listen and converse with the one who has come.

That is how we are supposed to act every day. We are to find God in all things, in all the people we know and/or help, no matter how busy we might be. We are to relate to them because God is within them, deep in their souls. Touch them. Hear them. Prepare meals for them without forgetting them. We will be giving hospitality to God himself.
