Applications deadline - open until filled.

SALESIAN SUMMER CAMP FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

We, the Salesian Sisters, thank you for your very generous contribution to our Salesian Summer Camp. Thanks to donations from the parishes of Cornwall, we were able to pay 12 young people to help us with the animation of the camp and we could also take the children to 3 outings in the area. Many other teenagers came to help as volunteers. We hope this will have made a difference in their life and that they will be able to pass it on. We will always remember the generosity of the people of Cornwall and we assure you of our prayers. Thank you.

MESSAGE FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

Dear Catholic Men,

As a Catholic fraternal organization, the Knights of Columbus has served the Church for over a century. It stands on the principles of charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism. By becoming a member, you join a vibrant community of Catholic men committed to living out their faith and making a positive impact.

The Knights of Columbus offers spiritual growth through meaningful conversations, regular prayer and reflection. It provides guidance and support in deepening your relationship with God. Additionally, the Order offers practical benefits such as reliable insurance coverage for you and your family, ensuring financial security in times of need.

Moreover, as a Knight, you have the opportunity to engage in charitable efforts, addressing needs like hunger, elderly care and pro-life causes. By participating in these acts of service, you demonstrate your faith and live out Gospel values.

Joining the Knights of Columbus also allows you to build lifelong friendships with like-minded Catholic men. You'll be part of a brotherhood that transcends background, forming lasting bonds and a sense of belonging.

Consider joining the knights of Columbus and embracing the fraternal benefits it offers. Deepen your faith, provide for your family, serve those in need and forge lasting bonds. Let's make a difference in our community as men of faith, virtue and integrity.

May God bless you abundantly.

David
Grand Knight
