CWL ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS - ST. ANNE SCHOOL

3rd Place: AVA HAGAN
Gr. 6 Immersion

Hello, my name is Ava Hagan, I am a grade 6 student at St. Anne's Catholic School and I've been asked to write an essay about Father Kevin Maloney. I have received 4 sacraments: Baptism, Holy Communion, Reconciliation and confession. We call Father Kevin a Father because he represents god. Father Kevin teaches us how to believe in the Holy Spirit and how to be more like Jesus. Father Kevin is a priest who wants to follow in the footsteps of Jesus and share the Word of the Lord. Father Kevin, the parish priest, visits us at school to share stories from the bible with the teachers and the students. When Father Kevin is not running a mass, he is still busy doing things for god such as visiting people who are very sick to say a prayer with them, giving people their first communion, marrying people, listens to people's sins, and welcoming people into God's family. When the church building itself is empty with nobody in it, it is just like a bunch of bricks stuck together with no love inside, but when Father Kevin welcomes everyone into God's home to pray with him, love fills the air and we know that God is there with us. We can appreciate Father Kevin by thanking him for teaching us how to be a better person.

UNPLANNED "THE MOVIE"
