THE TRUTH

When Jesus was standing before Pilate (Jn 18:37-38), Pilate asked Jesus, with world-weary sophistication, "What is truth?" But Pilate left without waiting for an answer. Elsewhere in the Gospel, Jesus actually gave this question its rightful answer (Jn 14:6): "I am the Truth," he told his apostles.

In the Gospel reading for this Sunday, Jesus explains how we ourselves come to the Truth. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Christ, and Christ is the Truth. So the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth and he guides Christ's people to all truth. The knowledge of the Lord puts a lot of things into perspective.

When a person opens to Christ, who is the Truth, then the Spirit of Christ comes to dwell in them, and the indwelling Spirit brings with him the gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, and knowledge (and others). A person who loves Christ and has the Spirit of Christ within them knows the Lord, and in the light of that knowledge, they can also see a lot of things that they would have been blind to before they came to love the Lord. The knowledge of the Lord puts a lot of things into perspective.

With that perspective, they will understand something of the great arc of creation which begins from the Lord and returns to the Lord, and they will see the goodness of the Lord operative in it. They will be able to discern the great good things in life from the small ones. This is wisdom.

Finally, with these gifts of knowledge, understanding, and wisdom, they will also have insight into the means for finding the great good things of the Lord. This insight is the gift of counsel. So because they have opened to the Spirit of Christ and know the Lord, they have these gifts of the Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, and knowledge.

But, you might think, how does any of this help me know the truth about what to do with this day's troubles? How should I deal with my son? What shall I do when I am sorrowful over the state of the church? What is the right answer to these questions? Where does the truth about these things lie?

Well, if you don't know where the truth lies and the Spirit of Truth is within you, then you can just ask him. And then the Spirit of the Lord, who is truth, will lead you to all truth, as the Lord says.

Pilate should have stayed for the answer to his question.
