"Communion with the Body and the Blood of Christ." The dynamic Catholic has well understood that "communion with" means to take part in the mystery of the other. When this other is Christ himself, the dynamic Catholic knows that he becomes what he receives in the Eucharist: broken bread, blood poured out for the world. His participation in the Eucharist encourages him to put on his apron and to serve like Christ served . . . Out of love until the end.

ALTAR SERVERS - Your Liturgy Committee welcomes servers for the weekend Masses. We are especially in need of someone to serve at the 5:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday evening. If you are willing to volunteer for this ministry, please contact Helen James at the office or Tannis Girard at 613-932-8789.

BELLELE GUERIN AWARD - Congratulations extended to Phyllis Leroux who recently was honoured with the Bellele Guerin Award. She has been an active member of the CWL for over 28 years. Also birthday wishes to Gwen Lefebvre (mother of Phyllis) who celebrated her 90th birthday last week.

ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS

The CWL recently held a diocesan-wide essay competition open to elementary school students, on the topic "What Does a Priest Do For Me and Others?" This week, the third Honourable Mention.

WHAT DOES A PRIEST DO FOR ME AND OTHERS?

Priests give us service that teaches us to live our life in faith and Holy Spirit. They love everybody, no matter how much you have greatly sinned, they still love you and accept you and your mistakes, understand that you are a beautiful human being. Priests give you that welcoming feeling when you walk into your church. The 'everything is OK' heart-warming smile that lights up the room. They always come in to talk to the class once a week, teaching us life lessons or the mass that was taught on Sunday in case we missed it. As soon as we walk out of the class or church after a priest has spoken and taught us, you feel relieved, inspired and relaxed, looking forward to next Sunday mass or the next time they come in to the class next week. They are Christians just like us, teaching us about the beautiful Word of God. From being baptized to first communion, they have been there, a true role model, for every girl or boy around the world from different churches, all living their life in Holy Spirit! Kind hearts, warm smiles and a warm comforting 'Hello' and remarkable, inspiring masses.
