MESSAGE FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

Howdy folks!

We are so lucky to be here together in this parish. We are all very blessed. Over the past 12 months I have had the privilege of serving as the Grand Knight here, and I couldn't be more proud of the accomplishments of our volunteers. This was essentially our first year back in action, and we held many events, welcomed parishioners and the community to join us for meals, time with family and friends and just a good time. Some of our programs are large and everybody knows about them, but many are small and "behind the scenes", supporting our members, and others in our parish community. Our Knights do so many things to help make a positive impact. They are all strong men, doing their best to live as He calls us to. Thank you for continuing to support your Knights!

To the Knights of Council 11531: THANK YOU for the tireless efforts and endless compassion. Thank you to the leaders who have played their part over this year and before. Thank you to those who are stepping up to lead us into the next year. Thank you for trusting me to lead. I look forward to another year serving my Brother Knights as we all serve others.

*David
Grand Knight*
