Farewell Fr. Jerome!!

Our parish at St. Francis de Sales has had the pleasure of Fr. Jerome as our Parish Priest for a six month period from January to June 2014. During this time he served the spiritual needs of the parish and parishioners with exceptional care, charm and always a pleasant smile. We wish Fr. Jerome good luck in his new assignment at St. Columban's. Thank you for being with us!

"The Lord assisted me . . . filled me with strength." The dynamic Catholic does not believe that God seeks to punish him, to test him. On the contrary, when times are difficult, he knows that the Lord comes to help him, supporting him through the people who cross his path. He learns to accept the assistance offered as coming from Jesus himself.

ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS

The CWL recently held a diocesan-wide essay competition, open to elementary school students, on the topic "What Does a Priest Do For Me and Others?" This week, we feature the winner of the 3rd Prize.

WHAT DOES A PRIEST DO FOR ME AND OTHERS?

Priests are models for us, they serve God, and are loyal to the Church. They baptized me, listened to my confessions and gave me the bread at my first communion. This year my younger sister will receive the bread for the first time, and the priest will be the one to give it to her.

Priests have been a part of so many great occasions in our lives, and we are so blessed to have them. Every Wednesday, Father Jerome takes his time to come in and talk to us about God, Jesus, and read to us from the bible. Priests are examples to us. They show us that we are all unique. No two priests are the same, but they all have the same purpose, to teach us about how to be great Christians and followers of God. No two people are the same, but us too all have the same purpose, to learn, no matter how old you are, you are always learning, always a student of God.

In conclusion, without priests where would be? None of us would be Christians, none of us would be baptized or know anything about God or Jesus. We are all so fortunate and blessed.
