THE FUTURE OF THE DIOCESE

As part of his mandate as Apostolic Administrator, Archbishop Prendergast has begun a process of consultation that will include at the early stages an analysis of the Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats (SWOT) of our Catholic life in Christ in the Diocese of Alexandria-Cornwall. This will involve the clergy, diocesan staff and members of parish pastoral and finance councils.

The findings of this initial step will be shared with the people of the Diocese in September, when all will have a chance to give input into the recommendations that will be made to the Holy See (Vatican). During this period, he asks that we pray regularly the Prayer of the Diocese of Alexandria-Cornwall.

RENOVATIONS - ATTENTION PLEASE!

During the renovations in front of the church, we ask for you co-operation. For the period of two weeks involving the front section, (16-27 May) we are going to ask you to use the main entrance of the church to have access to the office during office hours. We are going to ask those using the services of the St. Vincent de Paul to use the back entrance and the ramp. This is done for safety reasons. Thank you for your co-operation.
