Good Wishes go out to Assemblée Cartier Assembly 860, the patriotic and visible arm of the Knights of Columbus on the occasion of the 100th Anniversary of their Charter issued on January 14, 1922.

At that time, the application submitted by Council 485 was granted by the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council, on the noble principle of "Patriotism" to foster, exemplify, and propagate by association of the Supreme Assembly, Fourth Degree of the Knights of Columbus.

We appreciate and thank the past and present members of the Assembly for their dedication and volunteerism throughout the past 100 years. May they continue to successfully carry out the principle of "Patriotism" for many years to come.

The K of C Assembly chambers are located in Saint Patrick Basilica, Ottawa, Ontario.

SUNDAY SMILE

Two eggs, a bagel and a sausage walk into a bar.

"Bartender, my friends and I would like a cold one," says one of the eggs.

"Sorry," the bartender replies. "We don't serve breakfast."
