THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
June 22, 2014
Not by bread alone does one live,
but by every word that comes forth
from the mouth of the LORD.
— Deuteronomy 8:3b

AMEN

Take a look around the walls of your church. The word “Amen” has resounded off those walls countless times at the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer and as the faithful have come forward to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Today’s feast is about those “Amens” offered in faith, offered in times of trouble or doubt, spoken in joy, spoken mindlessly, but all given to God in a multitude of ways. It is our very lives that lie behind our “Amens” and are touched by the presence of Christ, the presence we celebrate today. More importantly, we celebrate the love of Christ for us shown in the sacrifice on Calvary and that he continues to give to us in every celebration of the Eucharist. What can we do but rejoice in that great love, and then go out into the world and live that love in sacrificing for others?

COLF calls Christians to be Audacious Witnesses: The members of Québec's National Assembly have adopted the death-dealing Bill 52, somewhat ironically called an “Act respecting end-of-life”. Masked as “medical aid in dying”, euthanasia is now authorized by law in Québec. For those citizens who respect the dignity of every human person, from conception to natural death, this event represents a call of unprecedented urgency, a call to take a stand in defense of those groups who will resist and challenge this new law. This is also a strong call to demand quality palliative care for all Quebecers who need to be accompanied with compassion until their natural death. Like the first Christians, we must be audacious in speaking with our family members, friends and colleagues at work on the subject of euthanasia; we must also make ourselves more available to walk with and support the vulnerable people God places on our path. Our main inspiration for defending the life and dignity of each person are the words of Jesus: “Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me” (Matthew 25:40).
