HEROES OF HOLY CROSS:
Fr. Patrick Peyton, CSC
(Part 2 of 4): Peyton settled in Scranton, Pennsylvania, where he eventually found work as a janitor at the Cathedral, in part because his sisters had mentioned to the rector that their brother had earlier expressed interest in the priesthood. It was at the Cathedral in the spring of 1929 that he first met priests of the Congregation who had come to preach a parish mission. Immediately, he felt called to join the Congregation to be a missionary, and that fall, on August 20, he and his brother Tom entered the minor seminary at the University of Notre Dame in Notre Dame, Indiana. When the two were in their second year of theology at Catholic University in Washington D.C., Peyton was stricken with tuberculosis. He languished for a year, having been transferred back to Notre Dame's infirmary. During that time, Rev. Cornelius Hagerty, C.S.C., told Peyton that he needed to pray to Mary the way the Irish always prayed – with great faith. Peyton prayed his Rosary and at the end of a novena, declared himself cured by Mary's intercession. The doctors eventually confirmed it. On June 15, 1941, Peyton and his brother Tom were ordained together. Grateful to Mary for saving his life, Peyton dedicated himself to spreading the practice of the family Rosary, which he had first learned in his own home back in Ireland.

CASH CALENDARS: Knights of Columbus Cash Calendars are available in the parish entrance on November 7/8 and November 14/15. Margaret McDyre at 519-833-4479 marg.mcdyre@outlook.com or Gaiyle Connolly at 905-304-7860 saypossible@hotmail.com.
