From The Pastor's Desk:

Dear family,

CORRECTION "ST EUGENE'S AT 60": April 1st 2022 marked the 60th anniversary of the dedication of the St. Eugene's Church building in which we currently worship. However, the parish was established 72years ago in 1950 by Most Rev. Joseph Ryan. We are happy to celebrate the beautiful piece of architecture which has become a spiritual home for many. Please sign up at the entrances if you are interested in helping plan a Summer Picnic with the 60th Anniversary celebration of the dedication of our church building. May we always become a temple of God's dwelling.

WIND DAMAGE Sat. 16th : some of the metal sheets covering our bell tower at the very top were ripped off due to the strong winds which occurred recently; also, one of the trees on the Queenston Rd. side of our property got broken. Thanks to our custodians who have tidied up the debris. We are working with our insurance company to get the bell tower repaired as soon as possible.

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION: our upcoming First Friday Adoration will be on May 6th at 7pm. Don't miss this hour of grace. Let us rediscover our love and devotion for Christ in the Blessed Sacrament and the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Happy Easter!
Fr. Andrew
