From the Pastor's Desk:

This weekend we celebrate the annual feast of our patron Saint – Saint Eugene I, Pope. Saint Eugene lived in the 7th century and he was a Roman priest who had held various positions in the Church. He was known for his charity and sanctity. He was consecrated Pope on August 10th 654, while his predecessor Pope Martin IV was still alive. Martin is reported to have approved the election, but some people believed that Eugene was a puppet of the Emperor Constance. Eugene soon demonstrated his independence by refusing the Emperor's demands to acknowledge Peter as Patriarch of Constantinople. The Emperor was furious and only the invasion of Muslims saved Eugene's life. Eugene died in Rome on June 2nd 657. According to ecclesiastical tradition, the Church celebrates a memorial of Saint Eugene on the day of his birthday for heaven that is June 2nd. Usually in parishes named after his name the faithful observe his feast on the nearest Sunday. This year the nearest Sunday was Corpus Christi Sunday so we transferred the feast day to this weekend. The history of our Parish is quite interesting. When the decision of building a new church in the Eastern skirts of Hamilton was made they were thinking of the title of the new church. In the 50s of the last century the Universal Church was troubled with numerous issues. Many people, including even some Catholics, undermined the position of the Pope. Therefore, it was decided that the church would be dedicated to Saint Eugene I, Pope to emphasize and support the papacy and directly Pope Pius XII whose baptismal name was Eugene. Celebrating the patronal feast is a great opportunity for the local community to thank God for all the graces they have received since the last patronal feast and to implore God's mercy for the current year. In our Parish over the weekend we honour our Patron Saint and the 11 o'clock Mass will be celebrated for the intention of the communities of Saint Eugene's Parish and Saint Eugene's School. We are very happy to have representatives of Saint Eugene's School participating in this Mass.

Our patronal feast is also a good opportunity to thank all those who have created the community of our Parish: the priests, the Parish workers, the volunteers of various ministries, parishioners, and visitors. We are thankful for those who have supported and who continue assisting our Parish with spiritual and monetary aid.

This week we commemorate Saint Barnabas, Apostle and Saint Anthony of Padua, Priest and Doctor of the Church. May God bless our Parish and our School with an abundance of His grace through the intercession of Saint Eugene!

God bless,
Fr. Peter

His Excellency Bishop Crosby, recently announced a planning study, which is now under way, to help the Diocese evaluate the merits of a Diocesan capital campaign. This campaign will involve each of our Parishes. The proposed goals focus centrally on Parish life, but will also help enhance several Diocesan ministries important to parishioners. The Diocese wants to hear from as many parishioners as possible as they evaluate their proposed campaign plan. Your feedback will be critical to the success of this effort. Further details of the proposed goals of the campaign and opportunities for you to give feedback will be shared in the coming weeks.

Do you have ideas on how to support families in our Diocese? We want to hear from you!

“The family is the community in which, from childhood, one can learn moral values, begin to honor God, and make good use of freedom. Family life is an initiation into life in society. (CCC#22074)” Home is the setting where an individual's physical, mental, emotional and spiritual growth is supported. Like a garden, a home must be tended, appreciated, nurtured and respected in order to thrive. Families today need more support than ever as they raise the future generation. Are you willing to add your voice at our gathering this fall to discover ways we can help families? If yes, call Lena at 905-528-7988 ext 2249, or send an email to: familyministry@hamiltondiocese.com

Marriage Tip: Expressing gratitude to those we love goes a long way to making them feel appreciated, but as Michele Weiner-Davis (The Divorce Busting Center) pointed out in her recent blog, negativity bias, which scientists refer to as a tendency to be more sensitive to negative stimuli, often causes relationship problems. This bias makes it easy for us to slip into the habit of remarking on anything that is wrong or negative, but forgetting to express the good we experience and feel. We can help overcome this natural bias by being purposeful in our interactions: express appreciation often, say thank you frequently and remember to tell your spouse what you love about your relationship. Doing a frequent check-up is a sure way to ensure you are more positive than negative, which will be reflected in the positive feelings in your marriage.
