From the Pastor's Desk:

This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist. Only two other birthdays are celebrated in the Church Calendar: The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ and The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Otherwise, saints and the blessed are commemorated on the dates of their deaths, for this date of their earthly death is seen as the beginning of their eternal life in heaven. The Catholic Church also observes the memorial of St. John's beheading as a separate commemoration in August. St. Augustin explained that the Lord wanted to announce His own coming through John the Baptist, lest if He appeared suddenly, they would fail to recognize the Lord. We are given the story of the ministry of John the Baptist, called the Precursor or Forerunner of the Lord, with some variation of detail, in all four accounts of the Gospel. St. Luke tells us that John the Baptist was born in a town of Judaea, about six months before the birth of the Saviour. By this reason we celebrate St. John's feast half a year prior to Christmas. His nativity was surrounded by miraculous events: Archangel Gabriel announced his birth, he leaped in his mother's womb when Mary pregnant with Jesus visited them, and his father remained speechless until his birth. John was the only prophet who pointed out the Saviour.

This week we commemorate: Blessed Nykyta Budka and Vasyl Velchkovsky, Bishops and Martyrs; Saint Cyril of Alexandria, Doctor of the Church; Saint Irenaeus, Bishop and Martyr; Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles; and The First Martyrs of the Holy Roman Church.

On June 29th the Catholic Church holds the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul the Apostles. On this feast day we are invited to pray for the intention of the Holy Father as a successor of St. Peter.

As you know, this weekend I celebrate Sunday Masses for the last time in our Parish community. On Wednesday June 27th I am taking pastoral care of two communities in Hamilton: St. Lawrence and St. Mary. I would like to thank all the parishioners and those who attended Masses in our church, the Parish workers and volunteers of various ministries, and the communities of our Schools. May the Lord through the intercession of our patron saint – St. Eugene bless you all abundantly. I would like also to welcome Father Andrew Quarshie coming as a new pastor of St. Eugene's Parish.

God Bless,
Fr. Peter
