From the Pastor's Desk:

Today we celebrate Corpus Christi Sunday. This feast officially named The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is held by the Universal Church on the Thursday following Holy Trinity Sunday and celebrates the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. In some countries, like in Canada, this feast is transferred to the nearest Sunday. There is a beautiful story behind this feast. The beginning of this feast comes back to the Middle Ages and is connected with a visionary nun and a Eucharistic miracle. A German priest was traveling to Rome and he stopped in Bolsena to celebrate Mass. While saying the consecration prayer he doubted Christ being actually present in the consecrated bread and wine. At the moment of his disbelief, blood began seeping from the consecrated host onto the altar and corporal. The priest immediately reported this miracle to the pope. Urban IV sent his delegates to investigate the miraculous event and ordered to bring the host and the blood-stained corporal to Orvieto, where he was at the moment. The relics remain there today. That Eucharistic miracle confirmed the vision that St. Juliana of Mont Cornillon in Belgium, a nun and mystic, had. Finally, in the 13th century the pope instituted the Corpus Christi Feast and soon it was observed by the Universal Church.

This week we celebrate: a memorial of Saint Boniface, Bishop and Martyr; the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus; and a memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. There will be an additional Mass this Saturday at 9 am to mark the memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Next Sunday we will celebrate our annual feast of our patron saint – St. Eugene with a solemn Mass at 11 am. Our church was dedicated to St. Eugene I, Pope who lived in the 7th century.

God bless,
Fr. Peter

From The Bishop’s Office:

His Excellency Bishop Crosby, recently announced a planning study, which is now under way, to help the Diocese evaluate the merits of a Diocesan capital campaign. This campaign will involve each of our Parishes. The proposed goals focus centrally on Parish life, but will also help enhance several Diocesan ministries important to parishioners. The Diocese wants to hear from as many parishioners as possible as they evaluate their proposed campaign plan. Your feedback will be critical to the success of this effort. Further details of the proposed goals of the campaign and opportunities for you to give feedback will be shared in the coming weeks.
