

St. Paul the Apostle and Immaculate Conception Churches

Graced by the constant, loving presence of God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - in our lives, energized by the intercession of Mary and the great Communion of Saints, and grounded in the Sacred Scripture, Tradition, Catholic Teaching, Sacrament and Prayer, we, parishioners of St. Paul the Apostle Parish, reach out to embrace all of God's children, encouraging them to receive the gift of eternal salvation, accept Jesus Christ as their Lord, and follow in his footsteps. We declare our solidarity with the poor of the world, and pledge to help them by sharing our love and bounty.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. GLASS:

God, after all, is faithful.

“Woe to the world because of scandals. For it must needs be that scandals come: but nevertheless woe to that man by whom the scandal cometh.” — Matthew 18:7

The Greek word scandalon is usually translated as “stumbling block,” that is, an obstacle set in the path that causes the unwary to trip and fall. There is today no shortage of scandals — we are rightly appalled at the existence of infidelity and depravity even in the highest offices of the Church. Is this the holy Catholic Church?

In January of 2002, the Boston Globe began its sensational exposé of the clerical abuse of minors. Fr. R. J. Neuhaus referred to this time as “the Long Lent.” He wrote: “What has happened in Boston is inexcusable. And Boston is not an isolated instance. Catholics should be braced for the probability that the storm of scandal is by no means past.” Sixteen years later, the scandals continue.

The Boston storm was still raging when I entered the Seminary in September of that same year. I was as angry as everyone else at the revelations. The words of Jesus certainly came to mind: “But he that shall scandalize one of these little ones that believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be drowned in the depth of the sea.”

The evidence that there are priests and bishops who are unfaithful to Christ and his Church can however in no way diminish by one iota my own faith in Christ. I will not give anyone the power to undermine my relationship with God. In my own case, I never questioned my vocation. “Let God be true, and every man a liar.”

Later, I came across a homily by St. Augustine:

Don’t be surprised at how many bad Christians there are who fill the church. They can be with us in the Church of this time; but in that Church which will come into being after the resurrection, they will be unable to be gathered in with the saints. The Church of this time is compared to a threshing-floor, having on it grain mixed with chaff, having bad members mixed with the good.

However, the one is coming to judge the living and the dead. He will have a winnowing fan in his hand, and will cleanse the threshing-floor; and he will gather his wheat together into the granary, while the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.

You who are grain, stay where you are, and don’t leave the threshing-floor. When that one comes who distinguishes infallibly between grain and chaff, he won’t carry up to the granary anything he doesn’t find on the threshing-floor. Don’t let the mixture of husks depress you; they won’t be with you forever. How much, anyway, is this pile of husks that is covering us? Thank God, it’s very light. We only have to be grains, and however big it is, it won’t crush us. God, after all, is faithful.

www.sharelife.org "(The common good...)"

It means protecting people, showing loving concern for each and every person, especially children, the elderly, those in need, who are often the last we think about." Pope Francis

Pope Francis encourages us to show loving concern for each other, and in so doing care for those who are often forgotten. As a Catholic community, how does the challenge to show this love for our neighbour manifest itself across our archdiocese? The ShareLife campaign is an integral part of the work of the church in the Archdiocese of Toronto. Catholic Outreach in Justice and Love is one of the core directions of our Pastoral Plan, and ShareLife is one of the ways that we manifest this in our archdiocese.

You can drop your ShareLife envelopes in the offertory basket until July 30, 2017 or donate online at:
