THE PASTOR'S CORNER

CHRIST IS RISEN ALLELUIA!

Our Easter Celebrations were glorious, and a word of thank you to all of the ministers, choirs and other helpers who worked so diligently to bring this about.

Congratulations to Kiralya Olive Mazgon Jones of the RCIC program who was baptized at the Vigil, and thanks to Sheila Malloch for the care and preparations of this child and her family.

Congratulations to Sarah Baker Bulas of the RCIA program who was baptized also at the Vigil, and Congratulations to Andrea Graham, Ernie Lem, Jessica Graham and Terry Cowie, Who were received into full Communion with the Catholic Church. Thank you to Mary Jago whose leadership and guidance to all in the program is a great gift to the parish. A great word of thanks also goes to the many parish sponsors and participants in the RCIA program whose dedication to this blessed ministry makes it all possible.

Thank you to the Social Committee who put on a wonderful reception following the Easter Vigil, it was so good to be back in the hall for this first reception, that was so well done.

God has indeed blessed us with new life through these Easter Sacraments and those who received them. They are a sign of God with us and of the great Christian Spirit that animates our parish.

We are a wonderful parish God has blessed us with the Risen Presence of Christ in our midst. Thank you all from the bottom of my heart.

This week we will celebrate our first Communions. God is showering us with Choicest Blessings we are glad to rejoice. With my love and heartfelt Gratitude to all of you.
