THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

The Easter Celebrations continue this week with 7 children being baptized on Sunday. It is catch up time, in our parish. New Life is the theme of Easter time, and we celebrate it so well in these celebrations. Thank you to Cathi Richardson who prepared these families to celebrate the sacrament.

The confirmation class and their families joined with others who began to discuss the development of youth ministry for the future of the parish. It was well attended and many thanks goes out not only to the class and their families, but especially to the Ministries committee members who facilitated the "blue sky" planning session to help identify the needs and hopes of the young people of the parish to develop this ministry. We will keep the parish informed as things develop.

The annual financial report has been inserted into today's bulletin, and members of the finance committee will avail themselves after all the masses to answer any questions that parishioners may have regarding this report. The finance committee has worked in conjunction with me and our finance office to develop a working budget for next year projecting the ministerial plans and needs that we hope to have in place for September. These plans have been developed as a result of the parish survey that we conducted last summer and early fall. We will be seeking parishioner involvement in the stewardship of the programs that we develop especially as we move toward Stewardship Sunday in September. Thank you all for your consistent involvement in the life and ministry of the parish.

We are always interested in recruiting new members to the Finance Committee and the Ministries Committee. Please submit your resume to the parish office if you are interested in this service, and I will contact you personally.

The RCIA program and scripture study sessions resumed this week after Easter, and will continue until Pentecost. If you are interested in this program you are welcome to attend on Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

Thank you all for your continued engagement in the life and ministry of the parish. May the Lord Bless you abundantly

In the Love and Joy of Christ our Risen Saviour.

Fr. Dan

Please pray for:

The Sick: Karen, John Cawley, Terri Daurio, Madeline Payne
Anne Marie Curley,

The Deceased: Elizabeth Leo, Giuseppa Ricci, Catherine Kenney,
Sabrina Araya, Paul Galea

SVDP is looking for your help!

Once again, we have had a client turn to us for help. They need 2 tables and chairs and a dresser in good condition. If you are able to donate any of these items, please leave a message at ext. 232. We will pick up and deliver. Thank you! (Please note we can only pick up what is requested of us, as we have no storage.)

ST. Vincent de Paul Bundle Weekend

The truck will be in our parking lot for the weekend of April 20th-21st, to accept your gently used items. Clothing and household items will be greatly appreciated. No Furniture please. See Posters around the building for more details.

Next Sunday is ShareLife Sunday! (A second collection will be taken!)

Working Wonders for people who are homeless... While at Matt Talbot, we helped Richard reunite with his brother, lost to him through separate adoptions, and deal with his mother's death, a woman he had mixed feelings about for she was the person who originally committed him to the system as a young child. Today Richard is working odd jobs. Drinks rarely and still has his apartment. Still overflowing with teenage-boy energy, although, he is approaching 60 and stands 6'6", there's a claim to Richard that's new. Some of that calm comes from the processing he did while in the Matt Talbot programme and some comes from us learning when to let go and move people along to the next phase of growth. In Toronto alone, there are a least 1,500 homeless people on any given night. On an annual basis, Sharelife agencies provide food, shelter, guidance, care and counselling to more than 10,000 people in the Greater Toronto area.

Don't forget to notify the parish office if you are moving! We need your new address to forward your tax receipt.
