THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

In this Sunday gospel, Jesus asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" He receives a number of responses, some say Elijah, others, John the Baptist or Jeremiah or one of the prophets. But he presses farther; Who do you say that I am? To this Peter replies, you are the Christ, the Son of the Living God. In response to this Jesus reveals to Peter who he is, the rock of faith upon which the Church shall be founded. The questions of identity that are discussed in this passage illustrate the growing awareness not only of who Jesus is, but who his followers become when they come to believe in Him. This gospel is one that helps us to realize our own true identities as followers of Christ. We become truly who we are as our faith in God develops through life in all its complexities and struggles. It is only in clinging to our faith in God throughout our lives that we come to appreciate the love and faithfulness of God. The ONE who made each of us for a purpose that we discover only gradually through life in the plan of salvation that is mapped out for each of us in following the Way of Christ as he teaches us how to love God and our neighbour in the specific ways that each life engenders.

Peter and the disciples will falter in their journey, even to the points of denying Jesus and abandoning him in his Hour of Crisis at Calvary. They will repent of this in the end and become the great evangelists and Apostles of the Church whose work and preaching will become the foundation of our Church and the Faith that we continue to realize in our own life times. The miracle of the Gospel is that it unfolds in our lives precisely as we put our Faith in Jesus, the Son of the Living God. He entered our human situation so that we could discover who we are as individuals in a community of faith that is destined for eternal salvation through the death and resurrection of Christ. We like the disciples will falter, perhaps deny and abandon the Lord at times in our lives. Returning to the Lord, however we discover the power of God's forgiveness and redemption as we are called to repentance as the disciples themselves were. The Love of God who made us is revealed in the Love of Jesus who has redeemed us so we too can proclaim our faith in him to others, as they may come to know and love and serve God with us. In this process we as a Church can realize all that we are, and so become who we are meant to be as a community of Faith in Christ the Son of the Living God.

This week, Mary Jago and I met to plan this season's RCIA program. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. This program is one that is designed for individuals who are considering Baptism and reception of the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation in the Roman Catholic Church. Each year we walk as a parish community of faith throughout the liturgical year inviting individuals who desire to become a part of us to participate in the instruction and discernment of their faith. This program is designed for unbaptized adults and Christians from other traditions to listen, pray and discover who we say that Jesus is, and who we say we are as a Catholic Church. Through this process individuals may decide to seek the Lord and receive his grace through reception of the sacraments and becoming members of his Body in the Catholic Church.

This program involves the whole parish in worship, and invites members of the parish who feel called to participate more directly in the process to assist the inquiring individuals by sharing their own faith experiences and insights so that those who seek the Lord may come to know Jesus in the personal encounter of our parish community of faith in Christ, the Son of the Living God. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or you know anyone who might be interested in becoming Catholic, please contact me or Mary Jago through the parish office. If you feel you might be interested in participating in this process as a member of the supporting RCIA community, please let us know. This program will be beginning Wednesday evening September 21st. May God Bless you in his Love and Grace.

Stewardship Sunday

Our Annual Stewardship Weekend will be September 24th & 25th. You are invited to come to the parish hall and visit the many tables, with information on the ministry tables, find one that appeals to you, and ask questions of our volunteers to find out how you can help, remember; there is no such thing as a "small job". Every contribution of time and talent is valuable. Musical? How about singing in one of our choirs! Friendly? Why not greet people as they enter the church! New to the Parish? Consider being an usher. Or have you ever considered being a Lector or Eucharistic Minister, Server? It's not difficult, doesn't even take extra time, it's on your schedule, it requires no experience, and it's a great way to get to know the parish staff and other parishioners. Why not volunteer? You are already here!
