THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

It seems like things are finally slowing down a bit here for the summer, at least enough to find the top of my desk this week. The whole staff was in today! Vivian was working with Cathy Richardson to prepare for the religious education programs for the coming year. Cyndy O'Grady was working on organizing the website and the stewardship process for September, and Rosanne and Anne were working to get the final figures for Share Life to complete the report to the Archdiocese on schedule. Thank you to all who made last minute contributions, I hope we made our goal, and we'll let you know when the final tally is made to consider the contributions that went directly to the Share Life office.

Meanwhile the couples who are being married have been coming each evening to either finalize this year's weddings or to start the process for next year. It is a good time to prepare for the busy season that will commence in September.

We are still seeking teachers and assistants for some of the programs, so please contact the office if you are interested in this important ministry to the parish. Also please remember Stewardship Sunday is coming in September and creates an opportunity to become more involved in the life of the parish. We are so grateful to all of you who contribute your time, talent and resources to make this parish a vibrant witness to our mission: Living and Proclaiming the Gospel through stewardship, all are welcome.

Two weeks from today, I will be running the Ironman in Mont Tremblant, and the contributions to complete the renovations of the washrooms are coming in generously. By the time I return in mid-August, the work should be completed. Thanks to the building committee and especially Tom Fijalkowski who has facilitated the availability of the contractors to complete the work.

The Gospel message this week lends focus to the importance of life's stewardship responsibilities, it simply reminds us that all we are and have comes from God and is meant to be spent for the Kingdom of God. We are deeply blessed to have so many dedicated parishioners engaged in the mission of Jesus Christ our Lord. For this I am truly grateful, thank you all.

In the love and joy of Christ.
Fr. Dan
