The Pastor's Corner

Peace and Goodness to all!

Last Sunday I was happy to show you all the Ironman finisher medal once again demonstrating my first place in the Iron Friar Category for the race. It was good to be with some old friends in Lake Placid and to celebrate the Iron Man Mass at St. Agnes Church there. What a great experience it is to be surrounded by so many people cheering us on and to begin the event with Mass creates a wonderful fellowship among the athletes and their families. I can't thank you enough for your prayerful support in this and thank you to all who contributed to the annual Iron Friar campaign for Share life and the parish building fund. May God Bless you all abundantly.

Thank you to all who came out on Thursday evening to learn more about the Archdiocesan Family of Faith Campaign. This effort will continue through the month of September and it is my hope that we will reach or surpass our goal of $505,000. This is a great effort for the parish and the Archdiocese, and I want to thank you all for your great generosity and sacrificial offerings that will make this a success. Let us pray that it will go well.

We have begun looking toward the new season that will begin in September. Vivian Kwok has been encouraging families to register the children for the various Religious ed. Programs. The Bulletin will carry the details on the dates and times for registration in these coming weeks. We are also grateful for those who have stepped forward to volunteer as teachers and assistants in these programs. As you all know Stewardship is the backbone of our parish ministry and the Stewardship Weekend in September provides opportunity for becoming involved in the life and ministry of the parish. Some of our long time volunteers will be retiring this year so we are praying that new people will step forward to replenish the pool of volunteers that we depend on for all of our parish activities. Please consider becoming involved as this Stewardship Weekend approaches. Thank you so much for your engagement in the life and vitality of the parish.

In the first week of September from the 8th to the 11th, I will be going to Graymoor to participate in a Vocation Summit meeting attended by the pastors and associates of all of our ministries to encourage a culture of Vocations in all of our parish to encourage individuals to enter religious life as Friar brothers or priests or as Sisters. Vocations to religious life and priesthood are nurtured in the families and parishes of the Church through prayer and discernment that involves the whole community. Please pray for vocations, as Jesus taught his disciples: "Pray that the Father will send labourers into the field. For the harvest is great but the labourers are few." Thank you for your prayers they are the primary step that will encourage vocations.

In these last weeks of the Summer season, I pray you will have some time of leisure and rest with family and friends to enjoy this lovely season and be grateful to Almighty God who cares so deeply for each and all of us.

In the Love and Joy of Christ Jesus,
Fr. Dan

Do you have questions about the Family of Faith campaign? Find your answer here!

1) What is the campaign goal? What will the money go toward? The financial goal for The Family of Faith campaign is $105 million. Money collected from the campaign will be allocated to six areas: parish priorities, youth, young adult ministry and campus chaplaincies, developing leaders through Catholic formation and engagement, the restoration of St. Michael's Cathedral, building new parish churches, and helping existing church properties.

2) How can I be sure that the money raised will be spent for the intended projects? A separate account has been established for money collected in the Family of Faith campaign. Funds will remain separate from other Archdiocesan funds and can be used only for the six purposes outline above.

3) How are proceeds from parish campaigns allocated? Twenty-five per cent of funds raised, up to the parish's financial goal, are reserved for parish priorities. Seventy-five per cent of funds are directed toward the Family of Faith campaign's archdiocesan-wide priorities. When a parish surpasses its goal, seventy-five per cent of funds above the goal are allocated for parish use. Most donations are in the form of pledges, paid over time. Funds are credited to parish accounts two times per year, as pledges are fulfilled.

4) What will I be asked to give? How will I be contacted? While we do not know your unique financial situation, please consider a pledge to the campaign that best complements your past sacrificial giving. A pledge allows you to consider a larger commitment than a one-time gift, and can be paid over a period of five years. Every parishioner will be contacted either in person, by phone or by mail.

5) Why do I need to complete a pledge card? Each donor is asked to complete a pledge or commitment card, so that the gift is recorded and donors are reminded of subsequent payments on the schedule they request. A pledge is a good faith commitment, but is not binding. If circumstances change in the future, you can adjust your payment schedule or balance accordingly.

6) What about other priorities (eg. ShareLife) in my parish and in the archdiocese? How will they be affected? Parishioners across the Archdiocese of Toronto are being encouraged to commit to a sacrificial gift to the Family of Faith campaign. As the gift to the campaign is sacrificial, parishioners are asked to maintain their commitment to other priorities, including ShareLife and their weekly parish offertory collections. Large capital campaigns can have a short term impact on annual fundraising campaigns like ShareLife and this will be monitored throughout the Family of Faith campaign.
