FROM THE DESK OF FR. DAN

This afternoon a woman telephoned to say how warmly she has been received by our parish community whenever she comes to celebrate Sunday Mass with us. She asked if she and her family could become parishioners, and of course I told her we would be delighted for her to register her family and become a part of the parish. This was good news to me and a sign of the Love of God that you bring forward to the community.

Tonight the RCIA program members will gather to prepare to receive the Easter Sacraments of Baptism Eucharist and Confirmation. There are two individuals who will be baptized, one adult and one child, and there are six who will be received into full communion with the Catholic Church. These individuals have come here to encounter the Love of God through Jesus Christ who is present in the sacramental life of the Church. They have come because they experienced God present in the community and they walk with us to learn more about the Church and the love of Christ that is realized in the life of the Church.

Sometimes we can take our life and worship for granted without realizing ourselves how powerfully God works through us and in us as a Christian Community. It is when new members come forward with the desire to become a part of us that we have evidence that we are doing God's work in the world. New members bring us their life and gifts and give us the opportunity to share our faith and love so they can grow with us as we manifest the Kingdom of God. The Lord is at work in us even now through the Holy Spirit so the world can come to know the Salvation that is won for us through Jesus Christ.

Every time we welcome someone new in the community or participate in the organizations and good works of the parish we exercise our opportunities to share the grace of God and the gifts we have to further the work of Christ who is in our midst.

As your pastor, I am so proud of you for the many ways you realize your Christian vocations to serve the Lord. Thank you all for your warm and welcoming love and embrace to all who come to St. Joan of Arc Parish. Thank you for your generous service to those in need and those who are seeking the help and love of God in our community.

May God continue to grow our community in His Love and Grace.
God Bless you all,
Fr. Dan

World Day for Consecrated Life Feb. 7, 2010

Today we rejoice and celebrate the Word Day for Consecrated Life. Over the years, many men and women have chosen to live out their baptismal vocation by professing the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity and obedience. They do this by joining a religious congregation, a secular institute, or through private vows. We pray for these people and ask God to bless our Church with others who will dedicate their lives to God's service.

Prayer for Vocations

*Holy God,
With gratitude in our hearts,
we praise you for your love and your fidelity.
You have shown us the way to holiness
through Mary and Jesus and many faithful witnesses.
You continue to call men and women to dedicate their lives through the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.
Give them the courage to respond generously to you call with "Here I am, send me!"
Blessed by your Spirit,
may we always proclaim your love
with our lives. Amen*

Did you Know?

Today's expanding agrofuel market is the latest threat to people's right to feed themselves. Agrofuels are created from agricultural products such as corn, sugar, oil palm, etc. and are usually grown in an industrial way, thereby reducing the amount of land available for food.

TAIZE

Tired of noise and daily distractions? Join us on Wednesday, February 10 at 7:30 pm (in the church) for an evening of meditative prayer with the songs of Taize. This new initiative will be continued depending on the response and interest. We need a musician to guide us in prayerful singing, so if you sing or play an instrument and want to share your talent, or would like to get more information, please contact Anna at 416 604 3256.
