THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

As the New Year begins, I want to once again extend my blessings and best wishes for a very happy new year to all and say thank you to all of you for your generous participation in our Christmas Liturgical Celebrations. Thank you also to all who sent goodies, cards and gifts my way. I am working on thank you notes this week and hope to get them in the mail. If I missed you please forgive me, some of the cards didn't have last names or any names at all so I hope you know who you are and that I am grateful. Thank you so much. I want to thank the Golden Girls who worked overtime in counting the Christmas collections and doubled a couple of times as servers for the funeral breakfasts that came up during the Christmas rush. Good heavens we were in for quite the ride there for a while. You were terrific.

Last week, I managed to get away for three solid days of cross country skiing in the southern tier of NY, Allegany State Park. The snow was terrific and it was a great time to get away for some fun recreation.

This week we got right into the swing of things. Tuesday we gathered for the semi-annual mini-AGM to catch up on the activities of our organizations. It was a good and productive recollection of our various activities and projects and has set us up to continue the good work of the parish. The musicians recalled the successful ecumenical celebration of our Advent Lessons and Carols with hope for even more participation by the various Churches in the area for next year. I would like to thank the Choirs for the wonderful blessings they brought to us throughout the Christmas season.

The reports of the CWL, the St. Vincent DePaul Society and the Winter Welcome Table all reflected the generous contributions we have made in our out-reaches to the poor, and Christmas projects. The Merrymakers Christmas lunch and the Oktoberfest of the Social committee reminded us of some of the parties we celebrated and anticipated those being planned and currently in the works. Current projects like the Parish pictorial directory and the building committee projects are all on target for successful development. Our new ministries committee addressed our vision to clarify our Mission statement and continue the planning to realize the vision of our parish in the context of the Church in the Archdiocese. This is an ongoing process that we will participate in over the coming years. May God Bless the work of our hands!

We had some words of hope for spring with the daffodil bulbs that the building committee has set in to come springing to life once the winter is past. Thank you to all of you who make St. Joan of Arc the wonderful parish it is. May God Bless the work of our hearts and hands!

As we continue now in the season of Ordinary time we thank God for his many blessings and ask his help in all we are and do each day to further the work of His Kingdom in our midst.

God bless you all with Love and Joy,

Fr. Dan

Please Pray for:

The Sick: Vivian Hegadoran, Sean Wright, Pat Cronin, Rose Di Tommaso
The Deceased: Rita Norton
