The Pastor's Corner

Peace and Goodness to All!

This Sunday is the last day of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. We will celebrate this, especially at the 10:00 Mass with the presentation of the Awards of the 13th Annual Christian Unity Essay Contest Sponsored by the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement, and the Archdiocese of Toronto. Each year three student essays are recognized for their excellence from more than a hundred submitted that address the value of Christian Unity for which Jesus himself prayed, "That all may be one" (Jn 17:21) The week of prayer was begun by Fr. Paul Wattson, SA the founder of the Atonement Friars and continues to be celebrated throughout the world by Christians of every denomination. We are privileged to host this award presentation and hope you will join the winners at our weekly coffee hour reception. Winners: 1st place: Angela Tabucan, 2nd place: Veronica Carswell; runners up were: Michael Bellucci, Dominik Wrona, Thomas Albertini, and Steven Travale. Last week the Catholic Register published a full length article recounting the history of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity and the part the Friars of the Atonement play in promoting this important value for the Church. I hope you will have an opportunity to read this excellent article written by Michael Swan.

Monday Evening Development and Peace gathered in the meeting room to outline its efforts in the coming year and plan for the promotion of its theme this year: "Sow much to give". Watch for the unfolding of this campaign in the coming weeks. Monday also the youth group met to plan for the upcoming Family dodge ball gathering at the monthly $5 dollar family night at the end of the month. Please come out and have some family fun participating in this event. The youth will be promoting this event this weekend.

Tuesday afternoon the Merrymakers gathered for their monthly Mass and Luncheon. We are so grateful for the service and prayer that grace our parish through the life of our Seniors. The terrific luncheon of bean soup, Roast Pork vegetables and cheese cake for desert were all prepared by Dominic Caprara, Marie Caprara the wonderful volunteers and of course the hostess with the mostess, Rose DiTommaso called out the door prize winners. Thank you to all who make this event so special for the parish.

Tuesday evening, the Finance committee met to discuss its usual business and to review the budget for the coming year. More details of this will be presented to the parish in the ordinary schedule of reporting. They also discussed our upcoming participation in "Family of Faith" the Archdiocesan Capital Campaign. Members of our Finance Committee and Ministries Committee will attend a preparation workshop at the end of February to prepare us for this process. Let us pray for our Archdiocesan Family of Faith efforts. Tuesday the Confirmation class gathered and discussed prayer especially praying the Rosary. Thank you to Peter Dawson who led these young people in learning how to pray in this beautiful tradition of the Church.

Wednesday, the RCIA and bible study group met and greeted more folks who are interested in the program. If you or anyone you know is interested in this program, please call me or the parish office.

It is an inspiration to see the wonderful life and work of the Lord that continues in the daily activities of our parish.

May God bless you all richly in the Love and Peace of Christ Jesus!

Fr. Dan
