THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

Celebrating Stewardship this past week, I was delighted to host the many members of our various Stewardship Committees and Organizations on Tuesday evening, for a grilled salmon supper here in the friary garden. Over 65 people attended this shared meal and brought the appetizers and desserts to create a wonderful banquet. This annual occasion brings the folks from different ministries together to share fellowship and provides the opportunity for the many dedicated parishioners whose efforts are foundational to the operations of all the parish, to come to better know one another in a festive atmosphere. It also gives me an opportunity to express my profound gratitude to the many people who make our parish a place of welcome, worship and engagement in the mission of the Lord. Thank God the weather was fine, and a wonderful time was had by all. Thank you once again to all who participate in our Stewardship efforts. You are a blessing to me as your pastor, and all who come to St. Joan of Arc Parish to celebrate the life of the Church.

Wednesday I attended the annual gathering of the priests of the Archdiocese for a picnic lunch on the grounds of St. Augustine's Seminary. This is a celebration of fellowship that rounds out the monthly zone meetings scheduled throughout the year. It is always great to be together with the other pastors, associates and archdiocesan administrators for an afternoon of enjoyment in the out of doors. Once again the weather cooperated making it a lovely occasion. It is also an opportunity to meet some of the retired priests who reside on the campus. Their shared memories tell the story of the rich background in the life of the Archdiocese. Your donations to the Shared Life Campaign support these men in their retirement. Thank you for your generous contributions to this annual appeal. Let us continue to pray for them as they do for us in our life and ministries.

Vivian Kwok, our new minister of religious education is becoming a presence this summer. She was with us last week for the pre-registration efforts with Cathi Richardson, and attended the cookout in the friary where she was able to meet many of our chief parish stewards. Vivian will be introduced to the entire parish at the various masses throughout the summer so she will become a familiar presence in the coming year. Please give her a warm welcome. Her enthusiasm and expertise is a great asset to the parish, please keep her and our religious education programs in your prayers.

Michael Wright a new volunteer computer worker, met with John Scali, this week to become familiar with the development of our parish computer networking. Meanwhile, Cindy and Larry O'Grady have been working with James Dempsey, our web-site developer, to continue progress in this medium. We hope to have a more seamless operation up and running in the coming year. Thank you to all of these folks who work to keep us current and functioning.

Thank you once again to all of you for your prayerful dedication and support of the parish. You make it possible for us to fulfil our mission: Proclaiming and Living the Gospel through Stewardship, all are Welcome.

God Bless you in the Love and Joy of Christ the Lord,

Fr. Dan

Please Pray for:
