THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

Last week Friday we celebrated the confirmations of 35 of our young people at a wonderful celebration. The bulletin last week remembered some of the wonderful statements made by the Confirmandi to reflect their gratitude to God for this holy sacrament. I want to thank Sheila Malloch our director of religious education and the dedicated teachers of our youth for their commitment to the education and spiritual growth of these wonderful young men and women. Catechists: Stephanie Ficker, Sandra Whittle, Kathryn De Faria, Brad Plewes, Luke Baxter, Helena Staruszkiewicz, Mark Danner, and Collette Conway

The Joan of Arc Celebration Last week was a tremendous success, thanks to Stephanie Ficker for her coordination and leadership in this annual event. Thanks also to all of you who brought your covered dishes and to Dominic Caprara and Eric Ficker who fired up the grill and provided the great hot dogs and hamburger As that kept us fat and happy. Thanks especially to and the past and present students of Marrocco Merton High School who provided the great band that sent live music into the neighbourhood to celebrate our presence as a parish for all to hear. I suspect the response to this music was more contemporary than the Church Bells which are a more familiar local sound. The food, games bouncy castle and picnic made for a great celebration of our feast day.

We acknowledged the long time dedication and commitments to our parish Stewardship efforts especially to this year's recipients of the St. Joan of Arc Awards: Carmen and Frank Grech who have served for 8 years as parish scribes, and contributors to many of our parish activities. We acknowledged Inez Meleca also, who is president of the St. Joan of Arc Council of the Catholic Women's League. Inez is a true leader in our community. Her spiritual and temporal leadership and guidance is a motivator for so many of our parish efforts. Inez is also one of our "Golden Girls" who weekly count the collection and keep this aspect of our stewardship in order, a lector and Pastoral Care Visitor.

Each year we identify individuals who go above and beyond the ordinary in our parish stewardship to demonstrate Christian love and dedication to our parish life and worship and who have not received the award in previous years. The fact is, some people actually deserve to receive it every year. How grateful I am as your pastor to have so many wonderfully committed parishioners to sustain the life organization and worship of our parish. It is testimony to the presence of the Lord serving the community through you. The Holy Spirit empowers and sustains this community in a way that truly gives witness to the presence of the Risen Lord in our midst. I am humbly grateful to Serve.

Tuesday of this week we had the archdiocesan auditors here for the routine audit of parishes. I thank Jo-Ann Oswald for the wonderful service and work she has provided over these past three years to keep us up to date, to recoup funds that have been available to us through various government rebate entitlements and to create the contexts for ongoing maintenance of our fiscal responsibilities. She and our finance committee members serve me and the parish well and we are grateful for their expertise, and professional guidance in all of our financial matters. May God Bless them richly for their generous contributions to our well being and financial maintenance.

Thank you to all of you for your life in the Holy Spirit that manifests Christ's presence in your stewardship and service to the parish. On June 21st, we will host the annual AGM when each of our parish organizations will provide our annual report to the parish. All are invited to attend this annual presentation and the report itself will be available on the web site or a print version is available on request.

May God Bless you all with Love and grace in this Easter Season

Fr. Dan
