Acceptance of Adversity

God in His goodness has promised that the cross He gives us to wear will never exceed our endurance or be more than our strength can bear. And secure in the blessed assurance we and smile as we face tomorrow. For god hold the key to the future, and no sorrow or care we need borrow.

This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears us—what ever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of Him.

1 John 5:14 Helen Steiner Rice

FRIAR'S NOOK

I know that I'm living in Canada – but when is Spring coming! I'm tired of the cold. Maybe it's planned, so that we want to stay inside and self-isolate. I was outside in line for the store and got hailed on! Let me tell you hail on a naked head, hurts. Maybe it was God's way to drive me back home.

Our Gardening Committee, headed up by Cyndy O'Grady, has moved forward despite the cold weather. We got some soil and mulch for our planters and soon there will be plants growing to welcome you all back. Cyndy has already weeded the area by herself (vegetative distancing?) and the areas are all prepped.

On the inside of the church the Building Committee has also been at work. When you return, I'll be interested who notices the changes that have been made. I won't give you any hints, because I want you to pay attention. I remember when we got the new carpeting, many people asked where it was – after being in the church for Mass! So, when you return, look around. You may be delighted. Thanks to those who are continuing the work in the church and giving their time and talents!

For those who follow our Mass on Sunday, I apologize for the delay last Sunday and I thank all of you who waited. Facebook has changed once again (don't ask me why!) and after a lot of futzing around, I eventually had to download and install a new web browser to get it to work. I had planned and am still planning on having a prelude music piece prior to the beginning of Mass, so that you can tune in and know that we are up and running before 10AM.

I thank you for all the positive feedback that you give to me and each other. It shows that we are truly a community and that we love each other, much like the early church.

In the meantime, I have been working on new recipes with some success and Fr. Ken has tried his hand at baking (yum).

Otherwise, we pray for you daily and hope that God is keeping you well. See you on Sunday or Wednesday for bible study.

*Stay Safe,
Fr. Bob*

Message from the Archdiocese

Please be advised that an email scam has been targeting parishioners of the Archdiocese of Toronto. The fraudster emails parishioners claiming to be their pastor and requesting gift card for a person who has fallen on hard times. Please report these emails to Fr. Bob or directly to MIS Help Desk at heklpdesk@archtoronto.org.

Catholic Cemeteries

CCFS is committed to serving our bereaved families and working to ensure their health and safety. We are equally committed to and focused on the health and safety of our employees.

The Secret

I met God in the Morning
When my day was at its best
And His presence come like sunrise
Like Glory in my breast.
All day long the presence lingered
All day long He stayed with me
And we sailed in perfect calmness
Over a trouble sea.
So I think I know the secret
Learned from many a trouble way.
You must seek Him in the morning
If you want Him through the day.
