St. Joan of Arc

Her story

As her feast day approaches!

Joan of Arc, the Maid of Orleans and the French national heroine, was born about 1412. In May 1429 in the midst of the Hundred Years' War, she led the siege of Orleans and saw the heir to the throne, later Charles VII of France, crowned at Rheims. The following spring, she was captured by the Burgundians and sold to the English. Subsequently she was turned over to the ecclesiastical court of Rouen where she was tried for heresy. She finally confessed to the charges, but upon being condemned to life imprisonment, she retracted her "confession" and was ultimately burned at the stake on May 30, 1431 in Rouen. At the request of Joan's mother and her two brothers, Pope Callistus III re-opened the case, and on the recommendation of the commission he had appointed, the proceeding of the trial which condemned her, were annulled in 1456. On May 16, 1920 she was declared a saint. Her feast day is May 30th.

In the Last 500 some years, the story of St. Joan's Life has attracted countless writers and artists. Marina Warner wrote that it is "not just because her story is so odd, so stirring; I wanted to learn about her because she has an almost unique standing: she is a universal figure who is female, but is neither queen, nor a courtesan nor a beauty, nor a mother, nor an artist of one kind or another, nor, until the extremely recent date of 1920 when she was canonized a saint. She eludes the categories in which women have normally achieved a high status that give them immortality and yet she gained it.

Butler's Live of the Saints, after listing all the legends regarding Joan, asks, "Who then was St. Joan? Quite simply a peasant girl, full of natural ability, good sense, and the grace of God, who knew, amongst other things, the story of the Annunciation. And when the will of God was made known to her, astounding as it was.. she faced it intelligently, welcomed it and submitted to it. That is what emerges from every page of the text of the original documents of her trial."

The first pastor of our parish, Father Lussier, claims that our parish was the first to choose St. Joan of Arc as its patron, the cornerstone of the first church on Dundas St. and Edna was blessed and the parish was officially named in her honour on July 18, 1920, barely two months after her canonization. (taken from a previous bulletin)

As you can see we are approaching our 100th anniversary as a Parish!

CHILDREN'S CHOIR

Children who like to sing are invited to join the Children's Choir. This group meets for short practices right after the 10:00 am mass, in the choir area at the front of the church. The Children's choir sings for Confirmation, First Communion, and some Sunday mornings. If you're interested, please come up to the choir area after church and speak to the choir director.

Living the Gospel by caring for the elderly...

"Words cannot convey our gratitude to Elizabeth and to the Society of Sharing for giving our mother a new meaning to her life. Before the friendly visit program started, our mother was very depressed and unmotivated. However, her life changed when Elizabeth started to visit her. Elizabeth is a very kind, energetic and enthusiastic volunteer and her hobby is artwork. She decided to share her talent with our mother and has been giving her art lessons in acrylic painting. The intellectual stimulation has been tremendous and, as a result, has enhanced her health and her quality of life as she relaxes and focuses on her art projects. Thank you again, for all your support." Last year ShareLife-supported agencies provided outreach programs that met the needs of over 2,200 seniors.

Next ShareLife Sunday is June 4, 2017. Please give generously.
