The Pastor's Corner
Peace and Goodness to All!

Christ the King marks the last Sunday of Ordinary Time in the liturgical year, and gives us the opportunity to consider the gift of Redemption that Christ won for us on the glorious throne of the Cross. He is the image of the invisible God the first born of all Creation sent to save us from our sins to make peace for us by the blood of His Cross. This feast is celebrated throughout the world with processions and songs of Vive Christo Rey, or Long live Christ the King.

Last Sunday the CWL held their annual Christmas Bazaar. It was a wonderful success and a word of thank you goes out to Maria Caprara for her leadership and all the wonderful volunteers. It was a joy to see Clare Sands visiting from Orillia, where she is very active in charitable ministries with CWL in her local chapter. I was able to obtain a beautiful wine decanter for our liturgical celebrations, thanks to Cataldo Caprara for the donation. All of the proceeds from the bazaar are contributed to the charitable works sponsored by the parish including Winter Welcome Table, St. Francis Table and others. We are so grateful to the CWL for the dedication they show in all of our parish activities.

The Merrymakers met again on Tuesday to celebrate a Christmas luncheon for the many seniors who gather for fellowship and a great meal. Thank you to Les Muniak our chef and to the sous chefs and volunteers who make this monthly event possible. I want to thank Rosanne for saying the prayers and Ana Da Costa for leading the Christmas sing-a-long. In my absence this month there was no mass. Hopefully one of these months it won't conflict with Council meetings. Thanks also to Rose DiTommaso for her promotional efforts and for the prizes that always delight the folks.

A big thank you to Liam, "the elder" for helping with the RCIA this week. We are using some video series pieces to augment the teachings and this week it was from the series "Catholicism" focusing on apocalyptic literature which is his forte at St. Michael's. Thanks also to Liam, "the younger" for assisting him in setting things up. We continue to receive new persons into the Rite of Christian initiation program through Advent.

Thank you once again to all of you who participate so fully in the Stewardship of our parish, you are a visible sign of living and proclaiming the Gospel so that all are Welcome.

*In the Love and Joy of Christ Jesus our King,
Fr. Dan*

Please Pray for:

The Sick: Anne O'Neill, Inez Meleca, Evelyn Jago, Phil Coehlo
