THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

Today we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. By his death and resurrection Jesus established Lordship over all creation and won salvation for all God's people. We rejoice as we contemplate the end of time at the close of the liturgical year and look forward to the Advent-Christmas celebration of the Incarnation of God with us in Christ that begins next week. May God give us new hope as we wait prayerfully through the advent season for the celebration of His Birth.

The Merrymakers celebrated an early Christmas mass and lunch on Tuesday with over 105 attendants. Rose Di Tommaso generously provided for the lunch that was prepared by Dominic and Maria Caprara in cooperation with many volunteers who helped with the preparation, serving and clean-up. We also celebrated a belated birthday for Rose and it happened on John Sobie's birthday, so there was much to celebrate. We are grateful for our seniors whose prayerful dedication to the parish sustains us in our life and ministry.

Our First Communion class of 55 children celebrated the reception of their First Sacrament of Reconciliation on Tuesday evening. It was a joy for Fr. Damian MacPherson and I to be able to serve these lovely children and their dedicated parents who participated integrally in the preparation and training of these children. Thank you, also to Vivian Kwok our minister of Religious Education whose leadership graciously facilitated this celebration.

Tuesday evening, the Ministry committee gathered to continue its ambitious agenda to support the mission and ministry of the parish. From their work of analysing the data of our parish survey to identify the needs of the community they have continued to work to support religious education, ministry to the youth and senior members of our community and supported enhanced communication abilities of the parish. This committee works closely with the finance committee and other organizations of the parish to recognize the ministerial needs of the parish and identify ways to meet these needs. We looked forward to the upcoming Advent ministries retreat and prepared an agenda for the visitation of the Minister General and Vicar General of the Friars of the Atonement who will be with us in the New Year. Thank you to all who participate in this vital committee.

Next Sunday the youth group Y2P will work with the St. Vincent de Paul Society as Santa Clause comes to collect toys from the children of the parish whose donations will be distributed at Christmas time to less fortunate individuals. The youth will provide games and entertainment for the children as we celebrate St. Nicolas Day in the parish hall after the masses. Thank you all for participating in this event and for your generosity to the St. Vincent DePaul society who care so well for our families in need.

Today, a special award of recognition will be given to Clare Sands for her 21 years of service and generosity in time talent and treasure to St. Joan of Arc Parish. Clare and Gordon her husband will be moving north to be near their family, they will be greatly missed by all of us, but hopefully we will see them when they come to visit. Clare is also a dedicated member of the Catholic Woman's League and has been serving as acting president this year. May God Bless them abundantly in their new life situation.

As we approach the advent season let us ask God to give us the prayerful spirit of Mary the mother of Jesus as we contemplate the Word of God to prepare for the celebration of the One whose birth is the foundation of Christmas and all the joy the Christ Child brings to the world.

In the love and Joy of Christ our Saviour,
Fr. Dan
