The Pastor's Corner

Peace and Goodness to All!

It was a great joy to have Fr. Brian Terry and Fr. Jim Loughran here with us for our annual Ministries Retreat and to share with them as Minister General and Vicar for the Atonement Friars, all the wonderful ways that God has blessed us to serve the parish. Both Fr. Brian and Fr. Jim found the parish to be remarkably vibrant and prayerful. They were also impressed with all of the good work that is being done. I want to thank everyone for making me look good with the boss! The great work done by the building committee installing the handicap doors as well as some of the little things like the chain on the door were done right on time! Thank you also to Vivian, Cyndy and Cathi for the great work you did in organizing this event. The reports that were given by the various committees and stewardship organizations reflected so much good work that we often take for granted. May the Lord bless you all abundantly in the good work and service you constantly provide the parish.

One person we missed in our gathering was Rose DiTommaso who continues to recuperate in the hospital. She would have been reporting on the greeters, and the welcoming efforts of the parish as well as merry makers and other ways she gives service. Let us continue to pray for Rose in her time of recovery. This past Monday the Winter Welcome Table gathered for the first meal of the season. Several of our parishioners were at St. Peters to help serve this meal that was hosted by the Portuguese and Italian communities of St. Peters. There were more than 80 guests for dinner and it's only the beginning of the season. May God bless all of the St. Joan of Arc and St. Peter's parishioners who make this ministry possible!

The building committee met last night to plan the Fall clean up day. It was decided that the Gardening committee would do the planting of the bulbs and caring for the gardens this weekend. You may notice the flower beds are now prepared for the winter months ahead. Thank you to Cyndy for her leadership of this group who have made our grounds flourish this season. The building committee will gather next week to do some of the preparations to winterize the building and get us ready for the coming seasons. The building committee does so many small and large tasks to keep our building functional and hospitable for everyone. This week they appointed me Fire Marshall. Rosanne and William will be my associates, I wonder if we get to wear fireman outfits?

On First Friday, we had the monthly healing mass with anointing of the sick following 5:30 mass. It was as ever, well attended and prayerful. This Mass was followed by the rosary prayed before the Blessed Sacrament with benediction at 7:00 PM. This service is held every first Friday and all are welcome to attend.

The RCIA program continues to meet each Wednesday evening at 7:30 and we are continuing to welcome folks to the bible study, and religious education aspect of the program as well as candidates for the Easter Sacraments. If you know anyone who is interested in becoming Catholic, please ask them to call me or the office so they can be welcomed into the program.

The CWL annual Bazaar is happening now in the parish hall. Thank you to all who made donations to this event. It always seems this is the kick-off to the holiday season because it's a great place to begin Christmas shopping! Thank you to the Women of the Catholic Women's League, for all the great service you provide to the parish and "For God and Canada" God Bless you richly.

Thank you to all of you who make St. Joan of Arc a place of Praise, Worship and Service to the Lord. Your Gospel Stewardship provides Welcome to all of God's people, it is a privilege to serve as your pastor.

In the love and Joy of Christ Jesus the Lord,

Fr. Dan
