A NOTE ABOUT MASS INTENTIONS

What does it mean to have a Mass offered for a specific intention? An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died. Usually, a stipend is given to the priest for offering the Mass, which thereby in justice creates an obligation which must be satisfied. The tradition of offering Masses for others, particularly the dead, originates in the very early Church. When we face the death of someone, even a person who is not Catholic, to have a Mass offered for the repose of his soul and to offer our prayers are more beneficial and comforting than any other sympathy card or bouquet of flowers. To have a Mass offered on the occasion of a birthday, anniversary or special need is appropriate, beneficial and appreciated. One must never forget the infinite graces that flow from the Sacrifice of the Mass which benefit one's soul.

If you have been thinking about requesting a Mass for a special intention, now is a good time – we have lots of openings! Call the parish office at 416-535-7646, or drop by before 1:00 p.m. (except on Wednesdays).

BLESSED JUVENAL ANCINA OF THE ORATORY

Blessed Juvenal Ancina (1545-1604) was the only one of the beatified Oratorians who knew Saint Philip personally. Both Juvenal and his brother sought counsel from St. Philip who had a gift for discerning religious vocations. They were to become Oratorians, not Carthusians as they had intended. Juvenal was ordained and four years after that, in 1586, he was sent to the new Oratory in Naples. During his stay in Rome, Juvenal put into practice the teachings of his holy superior. He loved to be unknown, taking upon himself hidden tasks. And he was always obedient, for in that virtue he saw the best antidote to pride and the best teacher of humility. In order to remain firmly rooted in his vocation and perhaps to remind himself of the powerful conversion he experienced during the Requiem Mass, Juvenal would meditate on the inevitability of death. He kept a skull in his room with the following lines written under it:

O thou who lookest now on me,
As thou art now, I once have been,
As I am now thou soon wilt be.
Think upon this and walk with God.

Towards the end of his life, Juvenal was commanded by the Pope to accept the bishopric of Saluzzo, in northern Italy, where he died, soon after his arrival, the victim of poisoning. His feast day is August 30.
