April 12, 2026 Second Sunday of Easter Sunday of Divine Mercy Message from Fr. Rob....

As the Risen Lord appears to the disciples He simply says 'Peace be with you.' These words of comfort and encouragement are a gift of His mercy. That's why this Sunday is known as the Sunday of Divine Mercy. In the midst of their confusion, sadness and bewilderment their hearts long for peace. Mercy as Pope Francis reminded us often, is a sign of God's love. It is unconditional, generous and without limit.

It was this gift of mercy and peace that enabled the disciples to overcome their fears and embrace the mission that Jesus was sending them into the world to accomplish.

The world needs mercy and peace. Unending conflict, hatred, acts of terror and violence are certainly not the plan of God. Each disciple of Christ must embrace the call to bring light and peace wherever they go. This week, strive to be a witness of the new life of the Resurrection.

Congratulations to the children receiving baptism in our family this weekend. May they always walk with Christ and live their new life of faith joyfully.

"God will provide the way and the means such as you could never have imagined. Leave it all to him; let go of yourself. Lose yourself on the Cross and you will find yourself entirely." St. Catherine of Siena

"Easter is a season of profound transformation, a time when the old gives way to the new and the broken is made whole. It is a reminder that God's power is made perfect in weakness, and that his grace is sufficient for all our needs." St. Faustina

FIRST EUCHARIST

The children will be receiving the Eucharist for the first time on the following weekends: April 18/19, April 25/26 & May 2/3. We also have a group of children not baptized as infants who will receive Full Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) at a special mass on May 12th. This coming week we will have our last session with them and will include their parents. We do a tour of the church explaining the various areas and then also have a little rehearsal to help them prepare to receive for the first time. We will have many visitors coming to join us on those weekends so let us be sure to help them feel welcome and guide them along as needed.

Our thanks to our catechists who have dedicated the last few months to sharing faith with the children and helping them to prepare and learn more about being disciples of Jesus: Alaysia Alexander, Elaine Boccioletti, Pat Collins, Mike & Vickie Janisse, Kathryn Kir, Kay MacLellan, Shelby Pilon, Jenna Sapardanis, Paula Silva, Martin & Chrisandra Skipper.
