December 8, 2019 Second Sunday of Advent

From the desk of Fr. Rob.....

Today finds us being challenged by the prophetic ministry of John the Baptist. While appearing to be a somewhat strange figure, he arouses attention and curiosity from the crowds who come to listen. He issues a challenge: be prepared. The Kingdom is coming and you do not want to be caught unawares. This coming of the Messiah will usher in untold transformation and opportunities for growth. John carries on the message of Isaiah who promises that there is nothing that will stand in the way of the reign of God. Let us continue to open our hearts this season to new graces and new opportunities to grow in holiness.

All are welcome to come and join us Monday for the celebration of the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. This is the feast day of the Diocese and we have adopted it as our parish feast day at Our Lady of the Atonement. (Come on Monday to discover why!) We will pray the rosary at 6:15 pm, allowing time afterwards for individual prayer and silent reflection, embracing the call of Advent to sit in stillness and wait for the Lord. We can ask ourselves- "How am I, like the Blessed Mother, touched by God's grace?" Mass will be at 7 pm. Come Lord Jesus, Come!

We look forward to next weekend, Gaudete Sunday and the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation with over 100 young people. What a wonderful sign of joy for our faith family. Please note the two extra masses: 12:30 pm at OLOA and 3 pm at SJV. All are welcome to come and pray with us.

The fall has been so busy and overwhelming with so many demands that we overlooked the ordering of advent prayer materials. Oops! We will make sure to have materials on hand for Lent.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Next weekend, over 100 youth will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. For the last few months they have been gathering and learning about our faith and the role they play in being a disciple. We are looking forward to celebrating with them and their families. There are 2 special masses for Confirmation on December 15th:

12:30 pm mass at Our Lady of the Atonement and 3 pm at St. John Vianney.

May our youth prepare wisely to receive an outpouring of grace in this special sacrament.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK: We will complete the celebration of this sacrament with one more nursing home mass on Tuesday. Along with the parish masses last week and 2 other nursing homes, we have anointed over 400 people in the last two weeks, sharing with them the healing grace of Christ.
