Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

On this special Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity we are invited to think about our relationship with God. Because we are created as spiritual beings, there is a longing in us to know more about the world and the beauty of life. All through the Old Testament, we find people longing to know God who is the Creator of all that exists. Through prayer and moments of encounter, they met a very personal God who revealed to them the gift of love. This love was solidified in the gift of Jesus, the Son of the Father. Jesus came to give us a very real, intimate and personal encounter with God. And as we heard last week, this love was made visible in the act of being breathed upon and receiving the Holy Spirit.

It is good for us to take time in our busy lives to just sit back and contemplate the mystery of the Trinity. Many of the Saints in their spiritual journeys, speak about the experience of just being in God's presence without having to say or do anything except to breathe in the holiness of the Almighty.

I have been thinking about Rachelle in these last few weeks and how, by her presence in the office with us shared moments of the Trinity: how she lovingly prepared families to mourn a loved one or rejoiced with them in the birth of a new child, or who gazed in wonderment at the beauty of creation and all creatures and in these acts showed us the loving face of God. May she rest in peace.

"If Christ is our life, then it follows that all our speech should be about him and that everything that we do and think should be guided by his teaching, so that our soul should be formed in his image." St. Basil

May the Lord God Almighty, the giver of life both in heaven and on earth, bless all fathers as they rejoice in the gift of their children. May they, by word and example be authentic witnesses of the faith to their families. May they seek the intercession of St. Joseph and strive to imitate his care for the Holy Family. May all the men in our lives who show us love and care: fathers, grandfathers, godfathers and uncles live out their discipleship in a loving, caring way and receive many blessings today.

SCHOOL NEWS

We are celebrating end of year masses with our 4 schools. May the summer days bring rest and relaxation for all the students and staffs.

We also have their graduation services over the next two weeks. May our Grade 8 students prepare well for the adventure of high school. May our high school grads trust in the foundation they have been given as they head to college, university or the work-force.

There is a Time for Everything under Heaven...

Let us all pray for all those who are in need of healing, at home, nursing homes or in hospital, and all those who care for them. Let us pray also for our deceased parishioners and family members who have died:

Jose Angeles, Pauline Soulliere

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.

May the Risen Lord bring peace and comfort to those who mourn.

PRIEST PENSION FUND APPEAL JUNE 14/15

This collection helps to support our retired priests with a Diocesan pension. Every priest contributes a portion of their salary (like most employees in the work world) as well as being eligible for CPP etc.

Our retired priests offer dedicated service in their retirement covering in times of sickness or providing vacation and retreat coverage. Please use the special envelope provided last week and return over the next few weeks. Thank you for your support.

CWL (OLA) CWL Pies

The CWL (OLA) will be selling chicken pot pies on Monday, June 16 11 am until 3 pm. This will be the last date until the fall.

Thank you to everyone for all your support for our pie sales. We are taking the summer off to rest and re-charge. greatly appreciate your faithful support in this project. Have a great summer.
