November 3rd, 2024

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

We all learn from a very early age what is expected of us as children of God. Our parents, teachers, priests and fellow parishioners all helped us to understand the two great commandments: Love God and love our neighbour. The pursuit of holiness is woven into these two commandments. We show God we love Him by dedicating time to prayer and discernment, trying to figure out God's plan for us. We show our love for our neighbour in the way we practice the works of mercy, extending a helping hand to those in need in whatever manner we can to lift them up.

If we can make a commitment to strive each day to grow in our awareness and our understanding of these two commandments, perhaps we will hear the Lord as He speaks to the depths of our heart: "you are not far from the Kingdom of God."

The liturgical year is quickly coming to an end. November 17 is the World Day of the Poor, an offshoot of the Year of Mercy. Pope Francis invites us to truly stand in solidarity with the poor and work to meet the needs of those who live in poverty. November 24th is the Solemnity of Christ the King, the day on which we celebrate the universal reign of Christ as Lord and Saviour of all people.

"One word or a pleasing smile is often enough to raise up a saddened and wounded soul."

PARKING LOT UPDATE

Thanks to everyone for their patience and flexibility. These two projects represent a significant investment on our part. Both lots are widely used and over the years have degraded. The time was ripe to invest in our future. Once they are both complete, we will have two up to date lots for our use. These projects come at a steep cost. Thankfully we had funds on deposit with the Diocesan Loan and Deposit Fund. Over the years we have used these funds to do a variety of projects. The Finance Committee will study the effects of these projects and ways to replenish a base of funds for future capital needs.

SCHEDULE

ST. JOHN VIANNEY SITE work is complete and the lot looks great. Masses now take place over at this site.
