30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this wonderful encounter in the Gospel today, Jesus asks the blind man a simple question: 'What do you want me to do for you?' Jesus has recognized the man's persistence and real need for an encounter of healing.

When we pray, Jesus asks us the same question. Our moments of silence are an opportunity to open our hearts to the healing presence of Jesus and to tell the Lord what we truly need.

The crowd sees the reaction of Jesus to this man in need and their attitude changes. Rather than telling him to be quiet and stay back, they see that Jesus wants to help the man and now they become sources of encouragement: "Take heart, get up, he is calling you." Let us be sources of encouragement for one another.

It was wonderful last weekend to be able to have the whole team present for masses and to take the opportunity to greet everyone. It is rare that we are able to do this and so this parking lot project gives us a chance to all be together and support each other as Family. After 5.5 years of travelling back and forth between multiple sites every weekend, the novelty of all being together over these weekends is a gift.

"If you are looking for the way you should go, take Christ, because he is the way." St. Thomas Aquinas

FAMILY OF PARISHES MEMORIAL MASS @ 10 AM ST. JOHN VIANNEY CHURCH

Come and join us on this special day of prayer for our deceased family members and friends. We will remember in prayer especially that day all of our deceased parishioners who have died this past year within our Family of Parishes.

This weekend we have placed our Book of the Names of the Dead in the front of the churches where you can place the names of your deceased loved ones. There will be two books, one for each parish and the books will travel between the two parishes during our combined masses until we get back to our normal routine.

"Blessed are those who have died in the Lord. Let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them." Rite of Christian Funerals
