Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

A message from Fr. Rob....

Our readings today are an invitation for us to rejoice in the mercy we receive from God. Throughout our lives we are engaged in the process of conversion, that is a constant turning away from sin and looking to the Lord and the peace Jesus offers to each one of us. The Book of Wisdom reminds us: "But you are merciful to all, for you can do all things, and you overlook people's sins, so that they may repent." What a great gift!

I am always touched by the story of Zacchaeus and his encounter with Jesus. Becoming aware of his own sinfulness and his misdeeds, Zacchaeus makes a life-transforming decision. Notice the action of Jesus in this encounter. Jesus chooses Zacchaeus. He looks directly at him and inserts himself into Zacchaeus' life. Jesus does the same with us. He always opts for us, each and every time.

Discipleship is all about recognizing what gifts of grace are available to us and making use of them. God's mercy and forgiveness are always at work in our lives no matter how far we have strayed. Consider the Lord's invitation to follow Him and make a choice to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation soon. (Saturday, November 5th 11 am to noon at St. John Vianney).

"On the twilight of life, God will not judge us on our earthly possessions and human success, but rather on how much we loved." St. John of the Cross

"Receive in tranquility and peace, O Lord, the souls of your servants who have departed this present life to come to you. Grant them rest and place them in the habitations of light, the abodes of blessed spirits. Give them the life that will not age, good things that will not pass away, delights that have no end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen." St. Ignatius of Antioch

Pastoral Update for St. Vincent de Paul Parish

Transition Process: In the decrees from Bishop Fabbro, he states that the present boundaries of St. Vincent will be absorbed in their entirety by Our Lady of the Atonement Parish (there being no contiguity with the boundaries of St. John Vianney). That means the territory bounded by the CNR tracks (North) Ferndale and Jos St. Louis (West) to Banwell (East) and the E C Row expressway (South). We know there will be many factors to think about such as distance when choosing a new faith home.

It is our hope that St. Vincent parishioners will continue to feel at home in the East Windsor family and continue to share their faith and many gifts with us. In order to move forward and to prepare for the transition, St. Vincent parishioners are kindly asked to contact the parish office over the next two weeks and speak to Pauline ext. 30 or Robin ext. 21 about changes to your status. In order to prepare for 2023 we would like to know your wishes with regards to switching to Our Lady of the Atonement or St. John Vianney so we can prepare offertory envelopes and make the changes seamlessly in the data base or if you are moving to the North Central Family (519-948-4133). We have pencilled in November 26/27 as the date for the closing with Bishop Fabbro and will have more information about this soon. There will be a modified closing ceremony outside (weather dependent) followed by a mass at Our Lady of the Atonement.

Cleaning
Crew
Needed

Dust Busters (OLA)

Every Friday we have a group of dedicated volunteers who come to clean and prepare the church for weekend liturgies.

They take extra care to ensure all is well kept and looking spotless. If you would like to join a very happy, dedicated group, come on Fridays at 12:30 pm.

Have you moved or changed your telephone number?

In order to serve you better, please keep us up to date with any changes to your address and phone number.

This will help in ensuring that you receive all mailings in a timely manner i.e. tax receipts. Many thanks.

We are not out of the covid woods yet and cold and flu season is now upon us. Feel free to wear a mask while indoors and make use of the hand sanitizer found at all the doors of the church when you arrive. Let's keep one another healthy.

There is a Time for Everything under Heaven...

Let us all pray for all those who are in need of healing, at home, nursing homes or in hospital, and all those who care for them. Let us pray also for our deceased parishioners and family members who have died:

Matteo Muscedere

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.
May the Risen Lord bring peace and comfort to those who mourn.

OFFERTORY ENVELOPES FOR 2023

We are preparing the envelopes for the coming year and will have them ready for distribution towards the end of November. If you do not presently use envelopes and would like a set or if you would like to switch to the automatic monthly withdrawal, please contact Pauline Mon-Thurs 9 am-1 pm @ 519-736-6023 ext. 30 or planglois@dol.ca and she can help with any questions about this. This is for St. Anthony of Padua, St. John Vianney and Our Lady of the Atonement parishes. St. Vincent parishioners please refer to the section above.

ALL SOULS REMEMBRANCE:

The month of November begins with two important celebrations: All Saints (Nov. 1) and All Souls (Nov 2). All Saints celebrates all those holy men and women, known and unknown, who now share around the throne of grace in the Kingdom and whom the Church acknowledges as saints. They pray for us and encourage us on our journey.

All Souls is a remembrance of all those who have gone before us and who await the fullness of the Resurrection to new life. This day reminds us that through the Risen Lord, we have the promise of eternal life with the Father. Jesus has conquered death.

During the month of November, we fondly remember in prayer all of our deceased loved ones who have gone before us as well as the parishioners who have died since last November.

The Book of the Names of the Dead will be placed in both churches where you can inscribe the names of your deceased loved ones beginning next weekend. During each celebration of the Eucharist during the month of November, we will remember in prayer all of our deceased parishioners, loved ones and friends.

Everyone is invited to gather on Wednesday, November 2nd at 7 pm at St. John Vianney Church for our Family of Parishes Mass for the Commemoration of All Faithful Departed and pray especially for our deceased parishioners of this past year. Members of the Catholic Women's League, Knights of Columbus and Society of St. Vincent de Paul are encouraged to join us and pray for those parishioners who were members of your groups and lived out their discipleship with service.
